

TAKING IT HOME

For the week of July 7, 2019.

(Questions and Scriptures for further personal study)

1. When you hear the word “hypocrisy,” what comes to mind? What are some modern-day examples?

2. Read Luke 10:29-37. How is the attitude of the Samaritan different from the scribes in Luke 10:45-47?

We can all fall prey to vanity, pride, greed and hypocrisy. The important question is how we respond when we fall. According to 1 John 1:8-10, how do true followers of Christ respond to sin?

3. Throughout history, people have questioned who Jesus is. Understanding how He described Himself can help us better know Him and the role He has in our lives.

Who does Jesus say He is in these seven statements in John’s Gospel?

- John 6:35
- John 8:12
- John 10:9
- John 10:11
- John 11:25-26
- John 14:6
- John 15:5

4. According to Hebrews 10:11-14, why is it important for us to understand that Jesus is more than just a king in the line of David, but also the Son of God?

MESSAGE NOTES

The Gospel of Luke

“The Question They Couldn’t Answer”

(Text: Luke 20:41-47)
