(Questions and Scriptures for further personal study)

1. What does Genesis 1:26-28 tell us about our identity?

Why is it important we recognize we are created in the image of God? How does recognizing that fact influence the way we treat other people?

2. According to the following verses, how should the church respond to any and all sin?

- Matthew 9:36
- Luke 23:34
- John 3:17-18
- John 8:2-11
- Galatians 6:1-10
- Ephesians 4:15

Why does this include all sins and not just the ones “other people” struggle with?

Whether we are married or single, how can we honor God with our sexuality?

3. Read Psalms 42:1-11. From verses 2-4, why did the psalmist sense such a deep longing for God’s presence?

From verse 4, what steps did the psalmist take to assert his hope in God during this time of spiritual drought?

Why did the psalmist choose to continue hoping and trusting in God?

4. How can our relationship with God grow when we wrestle with the tough issues of our faith?
