CONNECT GROUP HOMEWORK

For the week of September 22, 2019

GETTING STARTED _____

1. When you hear the word “worship,” what comes to mind?

2. In our society, what or who do people worship instead of God? Why?

How is that type of “worship” different from the worship God expects from us?

DIGGING DEEPER _____

1. In Revelation 5:5-6, Jesus is presented as both a Lion and a Lamb. What does it mean that Jesus is a Lion (Genesis 49:9-10)? What does it mean that Jesus is a Lamb (Exodus 12:3, 6-7, 12-13; John 1:29)?

Why are both of these descriptions significant for our lives?

2. Several times in Revelation 5 Jesus is called “worthy.” He alone is worthy to open the scrolls (Revelation 5:5). According to Hebrews 1:1-4, why is Jesus worthy of our worship and praise?

3. Read Hebrews 12:1-3. How is our worship strengthened when we keep our eyes on Jesus?

4. How does the fact that God is on His throne encourage you to trust Him more in the areas that are most difficult to you?

PRACTICAL APPLICATION _____

1. Worship is not as much an action as it is a reaction. It’s a response evoked by a vision of God’s glory. If we have difficulty worshipping God, what might we need to do?

2. Worship is a corporate discipline as much as a personal one. What are some ways we can worship God individually? As a Connect Group? As a church?
