Knowing Who We Are

Knowing who we are and what we stand for is something on which the team at Cedar Valley Farms frequently reflects. Our family-owned business exhibits traditional values that often seem faded in today's times. We value people and building relationships with our customers and partners through genuineness, honesty, and compassion. Our team values guide how we function in the work that we do and determine how we interact with one another. Solid values are what we stand behind; they're a summary of what we believe in. We believe that our values add value to who we are.

Where in the World is Cedar Valley Farms?

You may know that Cedar Valley Farms is a family-owned, local business located in the small town of West Salem, Ohio. But...did you know that Cedar Valley Farms' products are sold in 61+ different businesses throughout Ohio and even one in Florida?!

Whether it be retail stores, grocers, spas and salons, or chiropractors, we are beginning to gain more coverage across the map.

As more lives are being drastically improved, the true beauty of the natural healing potentials of CBD are slowly being revealed, and the negative stigma is beginning to fade.

CVF Fan Favorites!

"I almost had to re-home Lynx! This CBD oil in the smallest dose every day has cured him of his crazies! Now he even kisses his brother, stopped peeing outside the litter box, and doesn't scream and cry when we leave the room."

Kelly S.

"My husband had experienced such amazing relief from Cedar Valley's CBD Relief Topical for his broken hand that I decided to try it out on my throbbing trigger finger and painful nettles that I got all over my arm. The agony from both was gone in about 10 minutes after use! Unbelievable!"

-Sondra D.

"My mom let me try these new Cedar Valley CBD Pet Treats because of my itching (and I'm a tad anxious). I quickly determined that they're BACON FLAVORED...I tried to eat the entire jar! I can't stop drooling they're so doggone delicious! Woof Woouoooooof!"
