COUTURE COLLECTION

WELCOME TO MY COUTURE 2018 COLLECTION!

This past year, I moved to the magical island of Nantucket, after 7 years in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and opened my first retail store, The Vault! It has been a fantastic learning curve to act both as a designer and a retailer, and to really understand both sides of the business! I feel like it has made me a much more astute designer as a result, and after 10 years of exhibiting at Couture, I feel like I have finally hit my stride.

My expertise as a gemologist is always central to my designs, I focus on scouring the earth for the highest quality gemstones and unusual materials. My gift is to create big, bold, color in a fresh and contemporary, yet elegant and timeless way. This year I created color stories with a beautiful batch of pastel colored tourmalines and orangey pink opals from Australia; fiery red opals from Mexico with natural Arizona blue-green turquoise; Mozambique burgundy red and indigo blue tourmalines with rich blue boulder opals from Australia; and my signature 'wow' one of a kind pieces that collectors around the world know me for. Everything is always executed to the highest standards of workmanship, whilst remaining price point sensitive to today's market. Enjoy!

Love, Katherine

This collection, more than any other, is a direct reflection of where I've been—and where I'm going. Influenced by my time and my store on Nantucket, the new collection includes re-imagined classic opal designs, beautiful colored gem stories, and amazing one of a kind creations.

I am excited to be partnering with Muzo Emeralds of Colombia to pair their amazing tumbled emeralds with my new small ‘mini’ cage pendant. The color of Muzo emeralds is considered the most desirable in the world with hues of bright green with blue undertones. This is an exciting collaboration with Muzo Emeralds and Swoonery.com.
