NEW COLLECTIONS 2015

Welcome to my Couture 2015 collection! This past year, the most precious thing I made was my daughter Dylan. I hope she likes jewels like her mama one day..!

Despite adjusting to being a new mom, my creative energy is flowing stronger than ever this year. My new collection showcases spectacular collectable gems from around the world. In addition to my precious opals, I am using bold colored gems. The designs are strong and sophisticated including the new one-of-a-kind birdcage pendants with interchangeable freeform stones. Enjoy!

Love,
Katherine
