NEW COLLECTIONS
2016

Welcome to my Couture 2016 collection! This past year has been fast and furious, with a little one to take care of and a growing business. I feel so proud of my collections this year, the stories are bold, colorful, and substantive.

My collection continues to showcase spectacular collectible gems from around the world, as my gem hunting skills continue to hone in on the rare and exceptional gifts of nature. In addition, I am using three dimensional precious boulder opals, another rare find that uses my expertise of over 12 years in the opal trade. The designs are strong and sophisticated including the new one-of-a-kind cage pendants with special cut interchangeable freeform stones. Last but not least, a bronze and 20k gold line using Roman antiquities from 2000 years ago. Enjoy!

Love, Katherine
