COTTON & FLAX CLASSIC COLLECTION

Our new collection marks a return to the classic, foundational pieces that signify the core of Cotton & Flax. With a focus on neutral colors, these fresh pieces fit seamlessly into the current cultural conversation around minimalism, and living with classic pieces that you love.

You'll notice our continuing commitment to natural materials throughout the collection. Gorgeous flax linen and marino wool felt make the perfect canvas for Erin Dollar's signature hand-drawn patterns. Her bold use of line creates a modern look that fits well in contemporary homes, and creates a focal point for the dining room table or well-appointed kitchen.

These pieces are modern minimalist classics. With high quality packaging, including letterpressed hang-tags and cotton ribbon ties, Cotton & Flax products will look as beautiful in retail shops as they will in customers' homes.

ABOUT COTTON & FLAX

Erin Dollar is the designer and maker behind Cotton & Flax, a line of textile home goods made by hand in Los Angeles, California. With a background in fine art printmaking, Erin brings a boldly graphic, modern aesthetic vision to Cotton & Flax, which she founded in 2010.

The patterns featured on each piece begin as original ink drawings, which are transferred to silkscreens to print multiples on fabric. Cotton & Flax textiles are made using natural materials to create the highest quality product available.
