Fermentation in steel with ten days of maceration on the skins. Aged 9 months in steel tank.

Tasting notes

Color: Light ruby red.

Nose: The floral notes of geranium and rose stand out on the nose, accompanied by fruity notes of pomegranate and raspberry.

Palate: On the finale a light spicy note linked to the terrior from which this great wine comes. In the mouth the tannins are silky and delicate, we find freshness and softness are the same.
