

Playtest Expansion Two

- Let Slip the Floatdics of War -

HOF Fire Team is the first miniature wargame in the 'Hordes of the Future' 15mm series. A new series of linked rules systems which will encourage the diversity and small press professionalism inherent in those to whom 15mm scale science fiction is the wargaming mode of choice. Got an idea? Get it in print with 15mm.co.uk!

PLAYTESTING HOF FIRE-TEAM

HOF Fire Team is being supported by Drop Ship Horizon blog and is purpose hosted on a special new HOF Yahoo Group. Playtesting runs for four weeks from Friday 19.02.10 until Friday 19.03.10 and the game will be released in time for Salute 2010 in April of this year.

FLOATDISCS IN HOF

In the far future cities and frontiers of the Human Empire travel by road is not always possible and some armies and law enforcement agencies like the combination of mobility and strength offered by Floatdiscs.

Popular with the Io municipal authority to control the growing problem of Jovian cloud miners who want to avoid Ioian taxes by simply shooting or beating up police officers Garrit Type 8 Floaters can be seen in all the cities on that moon.

Typically deployed in pairs the Garrit Type 8 come in two models. The first is a scouting version which tracks offenders and the second is the heavily armed enforcement model when total compliance is required. Supporting police patrols on foot these floatdiscs have proven their worth time and time again.
