

God created
the heavens
and the earth

Genesis 1v 1

The book of Genesis begins by telling how God created the heavens and the earth, and everything in them, in six days. On the seventh day God rested from all his work and enjoyed the beauty of his creation. He saw that everything he had made was good.

