

Sammie O'Brien – Channel 7

As the youngest ever member to join the presenting team on Channel Seven's, Queensland Weekender and Creek to Coast, no one knows the Sunshine State like Channel Seven's Sammie O'Brien.

Along with her TV roles, she is the first ever female match day emcee for the Brisbane Lions AFL club, and commands the attention of thousands of spectators at every home game. She was also the fashion ambassador for the 2016 Channel 7's Brisbane Racing Carnival where she hosted Fashions on the Field and other carnival events.

Sammie is a natural presenter with an energetic and vibrant personality. Combined with her friendly, down to earth persona, she brings vitality and a warm smile to every emcee role. This talented Queenslander also has extensive experience as a Voice-Over Artist and in the radio field.
