Old Business

Conservation reported that Lou Flowers, Audrey Parrot, Kay Shiflett and Lelia Webb attended the groundbreaking for the new educational classroom building at The Brock Environmental Center on December 9th. This is a project to which we have committed funds. Dana Parker was thanked for her help in completing the 2018 HGW homeowners' keepsake photo books.

There were no Officer or Committee reports.

New Business:

The "Call for Artists" for the HGW Painted Garden Show was announced. The January 28th deadline for the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts - Fine Art and Flowers - was also announced. Members were encouraged to contact committee chairs if interested in participating in upcoming flower shows. Members were encouraged to complete and return the 2020 Interest Form.
