Consignment Agreement

Item Requirements

Items considered for consignment must be in excellent, like new condition, seasonal, current in style, clean, pressed, on hangers or neatly folded. Handbags and shoes must be clean inside and out. All designer items must be 100% authentic. We reserve the right to donate any items found to have noticeable stains or defects after accepted for consignment.

Consignment Period

All items are consigned for a period of 90 days. Once items have been consigned we ask that you leave the items in the store for the length of consignment period.

It is the responsibility of Consignor to pick up unsold items within 7 days of expiration, we do not contact you when your items expire.

After 7 days any unsold or unclaimed item becomes property of Nan's and may be subject to donation. (donation receipt available upon request)

Payment Information

When an item is sold, consignor receives 40% for cash or 50% if you would like store credit, of the final selling price.

Consignor can always use earnings for store credit on purchases at anytime or bring in more items to consign and let your credit accumulate.

Consignor may request a check to be issued for any balance due of $10 or more.

It is your responsibility to check on the status of the items you consigned.

Sales

It's at Nan's discretion to set the selling price and reserves the right to conduct sales and mark down inventory at any time. Any merchandise in stock is subject to sales.

Disclaimer

We will do our best to safeguard your items, however we are not liable for loss or damage.
