WINEMAKING

COMTE DE SAINT AIGNAN is a wine exhibiting the aromas and flavors of youth has you'd expect from a new born wine from Joost de Villebois.

Joost de Villebois is a renowned Loire Sauvignon Blanc winemaker and wine grower producing some of the finest wines coming from the Loire Valley.

Joost's goal is to bring an exceptional product to the new world. To achieve this goal, he uses his great skills to incorporate the latest winemaking techniques with France's storied vineyards.

Joost de Villebois, owner sauvignon blanc vineyards in the Loire, is the source of COMTE DE SAINT AIGNAN's high quality grapes.

Joost is assisted by Thierry Merlet and Patrice Merceron in his winemaking team.

Thierry Merlet, is a regional winemaker who has worked in Australia and the United States and has an education in Bordeaux and Burgundy.

And Patrice Merceron is another Loire born winemaker trained as an oenologist and an agricultural engineer.

Under Joost's guidance, the three men combine their forces to bring the old world into the new.

TASTING NOTES

The Sauvignon Blanc grapes originate from the Western part of France in the Loire Valley.

The 2018 COMTE DE SAINT AIGNAN is a Classy wine from the Royal Loire Valley.

Youthful and lively, COMTE DE SAINT AIGNAN's aromas include grapefruit, kiwi and ripe peach.

On the palate, the wine exhibits clean acidity and luscious exotic fruit flavors, granny smith apple and mango.

Flavors linger, begging you to drink more!
