

VINTAGE JILL CONTEST

Since we are celebrating the classic memories of Christmas from yesteryear, we thought it would be fun to create a vintage contest to go along with it! Below you will find an illustration of Vintage Jill. She is the distant 1950s cousin of Flat Stanley.

Take her with you to fun and interesting places and snap a photo! Post it on any of your Facebook or Instagram posts and use the hashtag #RCVintageJill. We will choose three winners for a special prize which will all be revealed on January 1st!

Get as creative as possible and thank you for allowing Vintage Jill to be a part of your Holiday season!

*If you are posting it, please make sure to make your post public so we can find it! You can also join a group called Addicted to Cuffs and post your photo there. To join the group, send an email to Addicted2Cuffs@gmail.com.
