Affiliate News

.....

Hey there Brenda,

I have this habit of getting excited and jumping ahead of myself—do you ever do that?

I realize that I skipped right over showing you the "back office." This is our private online space that features tools, resources, and information that I hope will be very useful to affiliates. To help you out, I've created a video to give you an overview of the back office and highlight some of its features.

The video can be viewed at <https://coleherbals.com/pages/affiliate-videos>.

One of the tabs you will see in the video is called "Training." Once you click on it to go into the site, you'll see a Welcome Guide that has tips to help you get started, or get going faster if you've already started.

Is there anything in the back office that you had hoped to see, but didn't? Do you have any questions about anything that I said or that you saw and would like more information on?

If you have questions, please reply to this email!

Until next week (unless I hear from you before then),

Brenda
