

Take some time to reflect on the following questions. Seek the support of others and ask for honest input. If you get stuck give CoachingPastors.com a call and we'll help you out.

You're leadership call:

- What is your ideal leadership role?
- What kinds of things would you be doing in your ideal role?
- What are you passionate about? What do you do that gives you life and energy?
- What kinds of things do you get up early for?
- What do you believe God has called you to do?

Your current reality:

- What's happening currently in your leadership role?
- How would others describe your fulfillment as a leader?
- What makes you good at what you do?
- What areas of improvement do you see you need to make?
- What do others say about your leadership?
- What do others say you are good at?
- What do others say you need improvement in?
- What do you believe God's growth agenda is for you?

Bridging the gap:

- What needs to change to minimize the gap?
- What do you think you need to learn?
- What would you like to try out to bridge the gap?
- What options do you have in bridging the gap?
- What are your obstacles? (Internal & external)
- What steps can you take today?
- Who can you rely on to support you in bridging the gap?
- What will you do?
