

Spring's hot home accessories from NY Gift Fair

New lines of pillows, tchotkes and throws follow fashion more closely than any other element of home design, which makes them the perfect fix for a room that doesn't feel fresh anymore. At last month's New York International Gift Fair, we took a look at what's next in accessorizing and spotted a few bandwagons you might feel like jumping on. —Barri Leiner Grant, Special to Tribune Newspapers

Nautical finery will set sail in every incarnation this spring and summer, from seafaring stripes to anchor objets trouve and whale statuary. We love Dolan Geiman's one-of-a-kind mixed media series such as Blackbeard's Anchor in salvaged wood and found objects.
