REACH YOUR ARM across your chest to slightly stretch the back of your shoulder after applying the first anchor.

ANCHOR: Place two inches of tape on the front of the shoulder joint with no stretch.

APPLY: Apply a light stretch on the tape while adhering it along the back of the shoulder, curving slightly to follow the shoulder blade.

FINISH: With two inches remaining, lay the end down with no stretch.

ANCHOR: For this step, lift your arm slightly away from the body. Place the anchor on the side of the shoulder with no stretch.

APPLY: Apply a moderate stretch on the tape while adhering the strip along the top of the shoulder, curving slightly back as you pass the shoulder joint.

APPLY: With two inches remaining, lay the end down with no stretch.
