Making Use Of Your Magickal Tools For a More Magickal Life

If you are a witch in the 21st century, there is no doubt that you have tools that you use in your practice and your every life as well. But despite having all the tools needed to achieve certain things, admit it, there are still some things you don't utilize that much because well, no one just taught you how to. Or maybe you've been holding off on buying something because you just aren't sure of how it might help you and of what you can do with it.

*This issue addresses those two concerns.
Knowing the many ways in which to use your magickal items will of course lead to a more magickal and spectacular life!*

We will teach you how to use crystal balls, writing kits, soaps, rune stones, tarot cards, pendulums, and more!

*See, we are making this issues because there was a time when we wished someone was there to teach us how else we can make use of the tools we already had and of course, we wish someone told us that hey, we could

BOOK OF SHADOWS

A witch should never be without his or her Book of Shadows. What is Wicca if not a spiritual journey? And what is a spiritual journey without taking time to think and written thoughts and reflections? It is not a spiritual journey if it's an unexamined journey.

That's what a Book of Shadows provides a witch. It should not be just a repository of spells and rituals and correspondences, it should also chronicle your journey; a place where you can look back on your life and see how far you've come and how much you've grown.

So the question is, what kind of Book of Shadows should you get?

Well, it depends on your preference, really. But the best bet would be to buy a leather one because it is durable and it lasts a long time. A leather Book of Shadows is something you can pass on to your future generation of witches.

Another thing to consider is having a symbol on the cover. A symbol on the cover of your Book of Shadows is for protection. A favorite among witches is the pentacle, since it is after all the most powerful symbol in Wicca. And many witches also like to go the "familiar" route, meaning Books of Shadows that have an image of their familiar or spirit animal on the cover.

It is not an uncommon experience to begin writing in your Book of Shadows about something that confuses you and all of a sudden feel an immediate sense of understanding about it.

IT IS NOT AN UNCOMMON EXPERIENCE TO BEGIN WRITING IN YOUR BOOK OF SHADOWS ABOUT SOMETHING THAT CONFUSES YOU AND ALL OF A SUDDEN FEEL AN IMMEDIATE SENSE OF UNDERSTANDING ABOUT IT. THAT IS THE MAGICK OF A BOOK OF SHADOWS.

That is the magick of a Book of Shadows. As a witch, this is something that you have to experience for yourself. It is a magickal experience that cannot be felt through another witch's story.

Like with the Truth Seeker's Book of Shadow: It bears the owl on the cover. This Book of Shadows will accept nothing but the truth not only in your writing but also in the way you live your life. So you will be encouraged to live your life in an honest and truthful way.

Which is why you will have a hard time finding a witch who has no Book of Shadows to call his or her own. Your Book of Shadows, bearing a Wiccan symbol and infused with your intentions, will work with you in your spiritual journey.

"YOUR BEST SOURCE FOR MAGICK."

CHALICE

The Chalice represents feminine energy and holds the element of Water. It reminds us of the Goddess because the Chalice usually goes together with the Athame, which is the symbol of the God and masculinity. It is one of the most essential and elemental tools of Witchcraft.

The Chalice is a staple in many rituals: If you've ever been in a coven, you the chalice is what gets passed around that holds wine, water, and witch brew. On your altar, the chalice stands not only for what it represents, it also states intention and also functions to hold your water and even your witch brew during, before, or after a ritual.

Since the Chalice represents the Mother Goddess, the one that you choose should reflect how you perceive the Mother Goddess.

Of course, the types of chalice available are not only exclusively symbols of the Mother Goddess. There are as many styles as there are deities.

SILVER TRIPLE MOON GODDESS CHALICE

This chalice is an excellent choice for your rituals and spells that you do according to the phase of the moon. Whether the Goddess is in her maiden, mother, or crone stage, this chalice will make your spells more powerful and your rituals more effective.

TREE OF LIFE SILVER CHALICE

This chalice placed on your altar will be a balancing and harmonizing force. If you are in need of peace, balance, and harmony in your life, then this is for you. It works wonderfully with your spells and rituals that have the intention of more peace, balance, calm, and harmony.

YOUR DRAGON GUARDIAN'S CHALICE

This dragon guardian chalice is an offering to your dragon guardian and an invitation to make him or her a part of your life. If you like casting dragon spells then this is for you. It will infuse your spells with the strength and power of the dragons.

CRYSTAL BALL

A crystal ball is another way to communicate with the Divine and discover truths. But, it's commonly used for astral projection. Although the bigger ones do require your own ritual space, smaller crystal balls means you can also do it privately in one corner. The good thing about crystal balls is they protect you from unwanted and evil energies while you are crystal gazing - therefore very vulnerable to outside forces.

The good thing about crystal balls is they protect you from unwanted and evil energies while you are crystal gazing - therefore very vulnerable to outside forces.

GREEN CAT'S EYE CRYSTAL BALL

The cat's eye crystal ball is one powerful crystal ball that wards off any negative energy that you won't have to perform a protective spell before using it, which makes it perfect if you wanna sneak-in a quick divination ritual in your day.

Another thing about the cat's eye crystal ball is that you can place the strategically in your house or your room to protect you and to promote love and luck. It brings good judgment, wisdom, clear-thinking, and inspires love, romance, learning and awareness.

OBSIDIAN CRYSTAL BALL

Obsidian is used to uncover things that may not so obvious to you at present. The color itself also allows us to see deep into ourselves and uncover truths that we've kept hidden.

If you have many questions about your life and the world and you seek to know deeper truths, a crystal ball will be very useful to you.

The obsidian is called the stone of truth, so you better be prepared to face the truth. Work with it when you feel like you have strayed from your spiritual path and you need guidance from your ancestors.

GEMSTONE BRACELETS

Gemstone bracelets are repositories for energies and certain vibrations. Each gem, just like every person, has its own properties that you can use to compliment your strengths and bolster your weaknesses.

Gemstones can be used in healing, magick, spell casting, and to inspire, uplift, to calm you, to energize you, to enhance learning, alleviate stress, balance the energy fields in your home, to diffuse electromagnetic energy from devices, and promote lucid dreaming. And I am saying each gemstone has a multitude of uses!

One thing you should know is that a gemstone chooses YOU. So when you are browsing for gemstones, it is important to approach it with attuned sense. Which one is calling upon you?

Tuning-in To Your Gem

If by some accident your gemstone bracelet comes undone and you decide to keep the gemstones and put them in a mojo bag or place them under your pillow, you can attune to the energy of each gem, by holding the stone in your hand and moving it from that hand to another while you concentrate on the particular qualities of the gemstone.

With a gemstone bracelet, you don't have to do this. You may simply put your free hand on it and concentrate.

You know you're doing it right if you feel a pulsing or tingling in your hands. This is a signal of your conscious awareness of crystal energy, and a bonding between you and your crystal.

Stating Your Intention

State your intention in wearing your gemstone bracelet and it will then amplify the energy for your purpose. Breathe deeply and exhale onto the crystal while focusing on your intention. By doing this you are connecting your intention with the innate qualities of the crystal and activating the energy within the crystal.

If you wish to heal, you may place the stone on that part of your body which you wish to heal. If you wish to have positive luck then just keep at wearing the bracelet every day.

Consider these gemstone bracelets depending on which area in your life you need help in:

GREEN AVENTURINE GEMSTONE BRACELET

The green aventurine is considered the Stone of Opportunity. It is best used for manifesting prosperity and wealth and for increasing your likelihood of winning in competitions or games of chance.

So if you are joining a competition or job hunting, the green aventurine gemstone bracelet will help increase your chances of winning.

ROSE QUARTZ GEMSTONE BRACELET

The rose quartz is the Stone of Self-Love. If you are struggling with self-esteem issues or mental health, wear this. If you haven't been loving yourself lately, the rose quartz bracelet will slowly help you heal and begin rediscovering the love you once had for yourself.

THE PENDULUM

The Pendulum has been used ever since by witches who wish to communicate with the Divine. It is one of the most effective ways to ask your question and get an answer. It is an amazing tool for self-discovery.

A pendulum works best when it comes with a crystal. Why? Because the crystal will enhance your psychic powers, sharpen your intuition, and heighten your spirituality. In other words, it will help you make a clear connection with the other realms.

A pendulum that you can wear as a bracelet is the best choice because not only will you reap the benefits of having a crystal with you at all times, you can ask a question or communicate with the Divine easily.

If you're walking and you have a question that's bugging you and you don't have time. Your pendulum bracelet will make it possible to ask without heading home to your altar, casting a circle, and etc. And you have a magickal tool and beautiful crystal bracelet in one!

PENDULUM WITH HEMATITE CRYSTAL AND TREE OF LIFE CHARM BRACELET

This pendulum combines the grounding and sealing powers of the hematite with the intuition-sharpening powers of the pendulum PLUS the balancing powers of the Tree of Life.

Wear this when you are a bundle of nerves before an interview or an exam or a hearing. This will relax you and ground you so you won't lose focus on what's really important.

PENDULUM WITH GREEN AVENTURINE AND TREE OF LIFE CHARM BRACELET

This pendulum bracelet is the best choice for when you are needing some wealth to come your way. If you've casted your money spells and performed your prosperity rituals, consider this the icing on top of the cake to ensure wealth WILL come your way.

Wear this during games of chance or when you are requesting a raise. Basically at times when you could use a bit more money in your life.

PENDULUM WITH BLACK ONYX AND TREE OF LIFE CHARM BRACELET

This pendulum bracelet is a negativity-banishing one and also a negativity-blocking one. Black Onyx is one of the most powerful protecting crystals that you cannot go wrong with it.

Wear this when you find yourself in a very unpleasant living situation, hostile relationship, and when you feel like nothing good is ever coming your way. Chances are, you've already casted your fair share of spells and this will complement all those spells.

MAGICKAL SOAPS

The act of bathing obviously plays a very important part in getting what you want in your life. Maybe it's the act of washing away the old to make way for the new. If it's not bath salts or herbal mixes, it's soaps. And I am not talking about just ordinary soaps but magickal ones.

Magickal soaps are soaps crafted with a purpose of achieving a goal, be it money, luck, prosperity, and love. It's much the same way as bathing with some oils to achieve clarity, to relax, and to uplift, except it does more.

Take for example the Money Drawing Bath Soap.

The Money Drawing Bath Soap is created with a blend of oils to enhance your ability to draw and attract money into your life. Of course, using this alone is not enough. Magickal soaps are used in conjunction with a spell. The bathing is part of the ritual but you need a spell to focus your intentions.

Use this daily as you work towards your goal of financial prosperity.

FAST LUCK AND PROSPERITY SOAP

The Fast Luck and Prosperity soap is best used for times when you need positive luck or if you need for things to be in your favor. Maybe you joined a contest, maybe you are taking a test in school or how about a driving test? Well, it's not that you cannot ace them on your own, it's just as human beings, we tend to have traits and patterns of thinking that prevent positive outcomes. And if things don't work out your way, there is someone else winning, and there is a bigger plan waiting for you. Your road ahead is paved with positive luck. You will notice a string of positive events happening in your life after regular use of this soap.

MAKE EVIL GO AWAY SOAP

Use the Make Evil Go Away soap for times when you are bogged down by negativity and unfortunate events. Feel like you cannot ever do anything right? Well, the moment you start believing that, you are going to need some serious washing away of accumulated negative energies that are messing with your head.

It's easy to accumulate negative energy if you don't make it a habit to cleanse and purify yourself. Maybe your loved one has a physical illness or a mental illness. Maybe your parents have been fighting a lot lately. Or maybe you've been encountering a lot of irate people at work. You cannot really avoid these things from happening but what you can do is get rid of negative energy that has latched on to you.

Bathe with this soap to open your pathways and let positive energy in. You will notice the difference in your thinking and your outlook.

MUGS

Mugs - everyone should have it. Recall a time when you didn't have a mug... You we're probably too young then!

Needless to say, a mug is a symbol of adulthood. It is from which we drink our coffee, tea or hot chocolate. Mugs are with us the moment we wake up, throughout the day, and even at night.

There is a saying that a person's mug reveals a lot about him/her more than he/she knows!

As a Wiccan, mugs are very special. They not only express your beliefs and hold your cold and hot brews, they also send a message to the Divine about what you want in your life. Plus, the good ones make you laugh and even hold your tools and ingredients for you.

The Witch's Brew Mug

THE DRAGON IS MY GUARDIAN MUG

A dragon mug is not only for holding your beverage. Did you know that you can use a dragon mug in your dragon spells? Dragon spells always call for dragon incense sticks and tools that bear the symbol of the dragon - even a dragon mug. Having a dragon guardian mug present in your dragon rituals will invite the dragons to listen to you and help you, making your spells more powerful than they have ever been.

THE NEW BEGINNINGS MUG

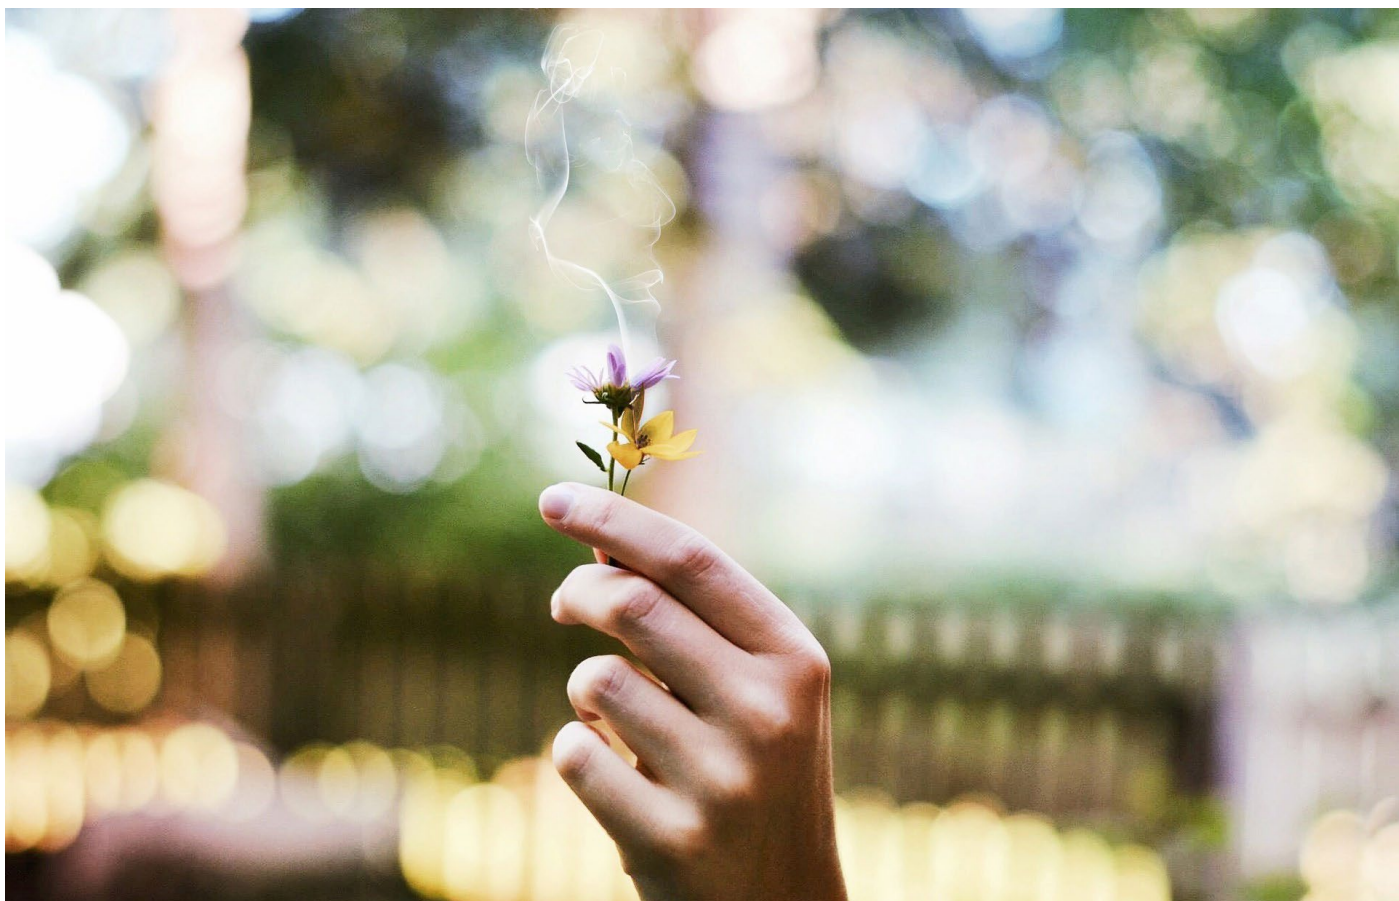

The New Beginnings Mug is not only for holding your beverage, it also sends a message to the Divine that you want to start over and you want a new beginning. Just like the dragon mug, you may use this in your spells and rituals for new beginnings. If you find it difficult to shed the weight of the past, this mug will ease you into the process of letting go. In time, you will find yourself more flexible in your beliefs and more open to change.

WICCAN REDE MUG

Let's face it, both office work and school grounds are major sources of stress. Living means experiencing stress - the key is to know how to handle it and not let the negativity pile up. A witch knows his or her Wiccan Rede. Place the Wicca Rede mug in front of you on your desk; use it to store your pens and pencils; place it strategically so you see it all the time. So when good days turn sour, you are reminded of your Wiccan path and you choose not to hurt yourself, anyone or anything.

RITUAL KITS

Have you ever wanted to cast a spell and then lack the materials or tools needed for it? Yes, you may substitute but there is something about having a kit that covers all those details ensuring a powerful and effective spellcasting.

Ritual kits address this concern. If you know what you want to cast a spell for but unsure of where to start, a ritual kit usually covers all the bases, with a printed guide to boot! A ritual kit is carefully put together to help you achieve your goal.

THE PASSIONATE LOVE LIFE RITUAL KIT

If your love life has taken a beating or if your relationship is lackluster and you'd like to do something about it. Cast a spell or perform a passionate love life ritual with this ritual kit. The ritual will include a bath. And in the spirit of changing your relationship, you can invite your partner to join in. It will help revive your minds, bodies, and soothe your souls.

This kit comes with a guide that tells you what to do for the ritual. The good thing about this is that you can use the salts when bathing after you've had a long fight with your partner. It will also help heal emotional wounds and help you gain a new perspective on the issues you have with your partner. And if you are feeling overcome with jealousy, jump in the bath to help you again, clear your perspective.

NEW BEGINNINGS RITUAL KIT

Everyone loves a new beginning and a second chance. The New Beginnings ritual kit will work with you to achieve just that. If you are one of those people who are not so good with accepting change and actually fear change but want change, then this will help you greatly. If you've got an addiction and as with addictions, you just can't find the will to quit.

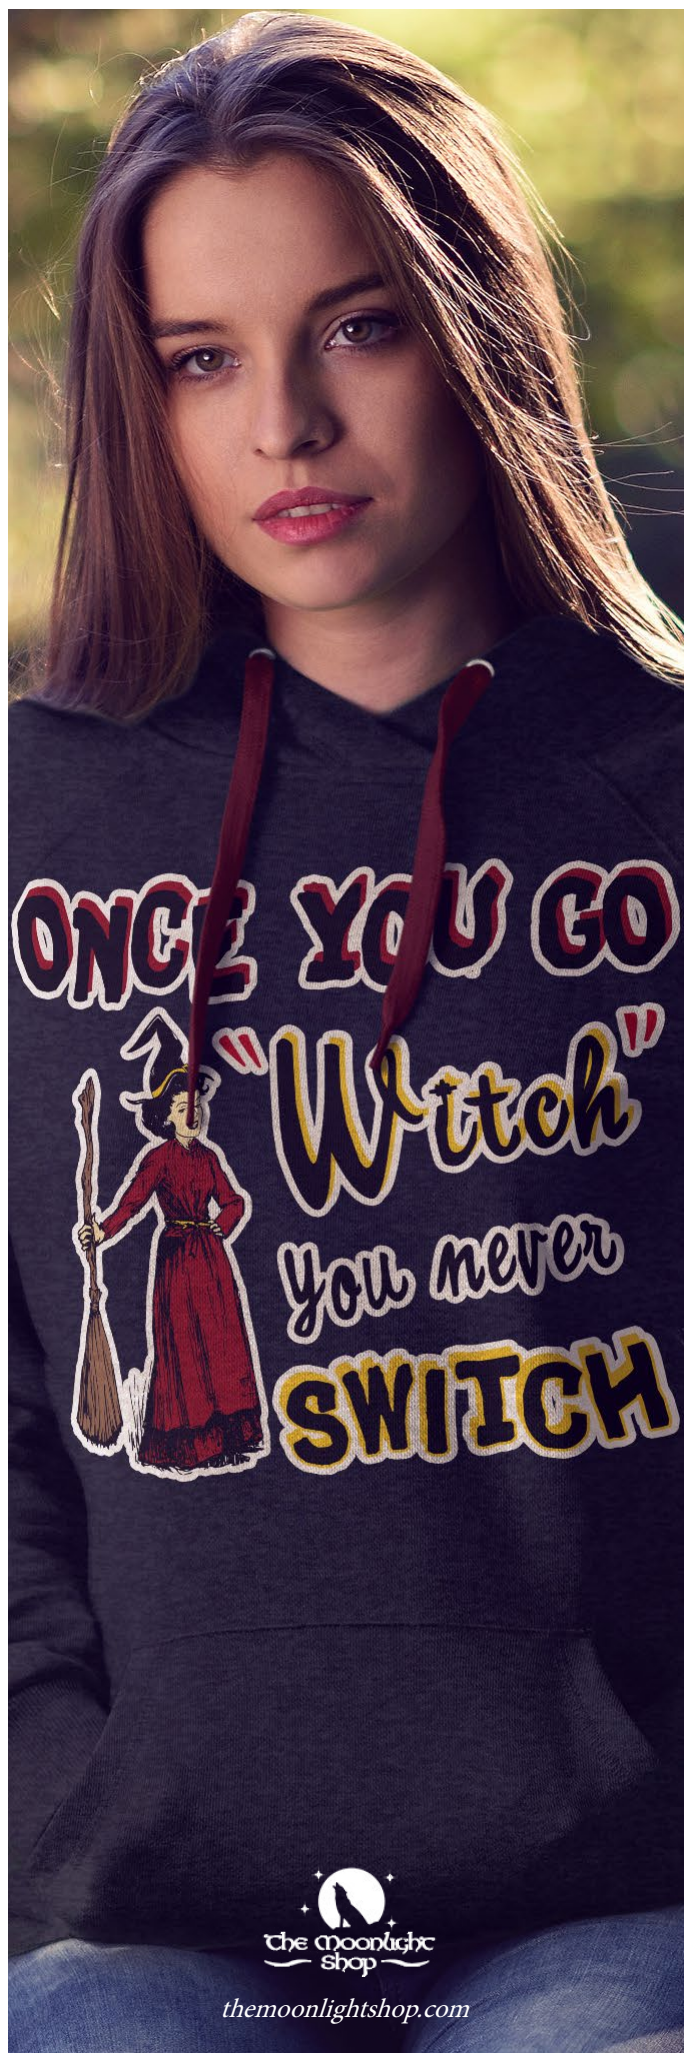

You can add the herbs in your bathwater and soak in as you focus on peeling away your old skin to make way for the new skin. Sprinkle the herbs in a small bowl of water and let the aroma of your intentions fill your house.

The New Beginnings ritual kit is also for you if you're trying to heal from a sickness or if you are trying to forgive yourself for your actions in the past. Forgiveness does take time and you should continually take baths with the special herb mix that comes included in this ritual kit.

You may also put the herb mix in a small pouch and place it under your pillow as you sleep. You may also take the pouch with you to work as a mojo bag.

THE NEW BEGINNINGS RITUAL KIT IS ALSO FOR YOU IF YOU'RE TRYING TO HEAL FROM A SICKNESS OR IF YOU ARE TRYING TO FORGIVE YOURSELF FOR YOUR ACTIONS IN THE PAST.

RUNESTONES

Runestones are beautiful things put on this Earth by the Mother Goddess as a bridge to the Divine. It's true, not only are rune stones a means of communicating with the Divine, it is also a way to uncover truths about yourself and the world around you. Plus, there's more! Rune stones, depending on which type they are, can release negative energy, block negative energy, and radiate healing energy.

Think of runestones as your seeing eyeglasses that bring out the best in you if you will.

Of course, it is best to have knowledge of the runic alphabet and what each letter means. Because what is the point in asking questions to be answered if you yourself cannot decipher the answer itself?

BLACK ONYX RUNES OF WISDOM AND TRUTH

The Black Onyx Runes of Wisdom and Truth are very helpful in helping you deal with sorrow, anxieties, and grief.

So what you do is place the black onyx rune stones in a bowl in your home. Or you can spread them out if you will, like maybe have some in your pocket, under your pillow, in a bowl in your living room, and on a windowsill.

You should feel a gradual lifting of your spirits and your mind opening itself up to positive thoughts. You should also feel a sharpening of senses since these are stones of wisdom; so expect a change in perspective and a wider scope of understanding.

To use in divination, this is what you do: ask a question, pick out one, and understand what the Divine is telling you through your chosen stone.

ROSE QUARTZ RUNE STONES OF LOVE AND DREAMS

The rose quartz is a stone of self-love and self-sovereignty. What that means is that having them on your person or around your home or workspace will inspire you to be more strong-willed, capable, self-sufficient, self-reliant, and supportive of your dreams.

So what this means is, if you buy rune stones, they pretty much function in the same way; the only choice you've got to make is based on what they are made from. Because there lies their differences. Are you grieving? Lonely? Suffering from an addiction? Feeling lost and trapped? Consider your situation and the areas you need help in.

WANDS

A wand represents the Element of Air and is used to direct energy, cast a circle, summon the rulers of the four directions, invoke the deities, charge objects, heal people, and more. The best wands are made using the wood from any of the Nine Sacred trees or minerals like gold, copper, and silver.

Our ancestors would make their own wands. And a wand that you make, is infused with your own energy. But you can also buy a simple wand and personalize it as a way to infuse it with your own energy.

For everything that you desire, there is a wand that goes with the spells and rituals that you need in order to achieve it.

In choosing a wand, consider what you want to master or what you desire:

WAND OF WISDOM

If you are in need of more wisdom and intelligence, then this is the wand for you. This wand is made from the Ash tree.

Yggdrasil, an Ash tree, is the father of all trees. Odin hung himself upside down upon an Ash tree for 9 nights just to receive the wisdom of the Runes. And remember, Odin created the first man from Ash.

Ash promotes intelligence, wisdom, and communication. It is the wood of the scholarly writer and poet. If you are in academe or if you are a mentor or leader, then this wand is for you.

WAND OF TRUTH

If you are in an industry where the truth is hard to come by yet extremely important, then this wand is for you. This wand will allow you to focus on truth, knowledge, observation, intuition, and ignore distractions.

The Oak Tree is tied to the Earth, Water, and Spirit elements. The Druids considered it the most powerful and the most sacred wood, and the wizards consider it the most powerful to use in countering curses and hexes. To the Celts, the Oak is the protector, provider, and most generous of all trees.

If you are a person who like to uncover truths for the betterment of everyone, then this wand is for you.

HEALING COPPER MAGICK WAND WITH CRYSTAL TIP

This wand is made of copper, which makes it excellent to transfer healing energy, balance, and cleanse. Copper is also known to clear out any blockages. So if you have a loved one who is battling something physically, mentally, or emotionally, or if you yourself are battling something, use this in your healing spells.

If you're a person who likes to help other people heal, then this wand is for you.

WRITING KITS

A writing kit is something you need especially when you are serious about your craft and you want infused writing in your book of shadows. The type of ink you use and also the feather quill you use plays a big part in the outcome of your spell-writing.

Think about it, can you really take writing in your precious Book of Shadows using a ballpoint pen or a pencil? That may be ok to some but there is something very spiritual about writing in your Book of Shadows. You are sending a message to the Divine when you write things using a quill and ink in your Book of Shadows or parchment paper.

Having a writing kit that has the requisite parchment paper, feather quill, and ink--one that suits your intention, will bring your spell-writing to a transcendental level!

THE WICCAN WRITING KIT

The Wiccan Writing Kit has one focus: to help you focus your energy on what you desire. With the feather, to purify you and your thoughts and black ink, to allow easy access to your subconscious; that way you only write just the truth.

Black ink is very useful for as you write, the black ink will help reveal to you truths that were previously unknown. It will help you see into yourself without any lies, distractions, or blockages.

Whatever it is that you write comes from a place that connects with the Divine. It is a very sacred process! The only challenge is removing the blockages that confuse you and keep you away from the truth.

Before you set out to right, make sure you are in the right frame of mind where you are not looking to hurt someone or yourself! Remember, what you put out comes back to you threefold. As a witch, you know that, right?
