THE CANDLE ISSUE

The Moonlight Post

CANDLES not only set the mood during a ritual, they are much more than that.

CANDLES represent the element of Fire. They also invite the spirits you want to join you in your magick.

CANDLES are also used to burn or light something as part of your ritual.

A candle, depending on its color, brings with it a type of energy that's useful in your spells. It represents your intention, and communicates your desire to the Divine.

Another thing you can do is to carve symbols, runes, initials and more into the candle – according to what you wish to achieve.

In this issue, I will talk about each candle and how to use it to achieve what you desire.

I hope with this knowledge you will have an easier time with your magick and rituals :)

Blessed be!
