Merry Meet!

I am so excited to bring you this issue on Animal Correspondences :)

This issue is a real eye-opener.

Did you know that animals are not created for us just to appreciate their beauty? If you do, then you probably know that they are essential to the balance of the ecosystem.

The awesome thing about being a witch is knowing that we can look deeper into the role animals play on this earth and in our lives.

*It is highly likely that the Mother Goddess and Sun God created the animals to teach us lessons about ourselves.

Lessons like loyalty, growing up, reaching out to other people, protecting our loved ones, and telling the truth.

Knowing how to interpret animal symbolism and use animal correspondences can help you achieve your spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional goals.

After this issue, you are going to love animals all the more. You are going to pay more attention and see with your eyes as well as your heart.

Enjoy reading!

Blessed be!

BAT

They also come out at night, just as when magick used to communicate with the dead is performed.

The bat is an animal of the underworld, past lives, and the souls of the dead.

The bat is the messenger from the Underworld. Bat sightings mean someone is sending you a message.

Who could that person be?
Are you trying to make contact someone who has passed away?

Being a messenger, bat symbolism helps you establish communication lines with whomever you wish to make contact with.

Ever notice why there are many bats in cemeteries? And also during Samhain they are among the major symbols of the Sabbat.

Bats are the physical manifestation of the souls of the dead. If you want to keep your loved on who has passed on close to you, surround yourself with bat symbolism to send a clear message to your loved one.

A necklace or an amulet can also serve as a conduit for communication especially in your spells and rituals.

They say the bat is the animal symbols for help in:

SHARPENING OF YOUR INTUITION
UNCOVERING ILLUSIONS
EXPLORATION OF INNER DEPTH
COMMUNICATION WITH THE DEAD
UNCOVERING PAST LIVES

BEAR

The grizzly bear invokes fear in the hearts of people.

But only to those who aren't ready for them.

For witches, advanced witches, they look at bears without fear.

For the bear is for advanced witches who have mastered their magick.

Bears teach you to slow down and reserve your energy for when it's necessary to expend it.

What this means is that you do not use up your energy for the sake of casting spells and performing rituals.

Rituals and spells are mediums to communicate with the Divine. So each one is with a purpose.

Sightings of the bear in your life call for a reexamining of how you make use of your energy, how you spend your time, and how you make use of your magickal knowledge and skills.

Are you showing off or using your magick to scare other people into doing things or not doing things? You can bet that's the wrong way to go about it.

Seek out bear symbolism if you have are constantly fatigued or the opposite - restless energy.

Seek out the bear if you need help with strength, vigor, and stamina. By conserving your energy, you can scale heights that are much greater.

The bear teaches you how to map out the use of your energy, so when the situation calls for it, you can stand strong and perform your most powerful and most commanding magick.

I WAS BORN TO BE A WARRIOR CLOTHING

This shirt is for everyone who lives a life of honour, courage and self reliance.

On the back, it shows the Valknut surrounded by a powerful poem:

"I was born to be a warrior, I do not kneel for anyone. I do not beg my gods for help, I ask them to empower me, so I can help myself. I don't need nor ask the Gods for forgiveness, I was not born into sin. I was born to be a warrior."

Not everyone can wear this, but those who can will bear it with pride and honour.

BLACK PANTHER

The Black Panther is the animal for the advanced witch.

Rarely will a new witch encounter a black panther in his or her life.

Also known as darker leopards and jaguars, they are a majestic show themselves to those who are ready.

Kind of like how the dragons show themselves to those who are ready for the draconian path.

The black panther, if it shows itself to you, means you are ready to move beyond the rituals and spells that you've mastered in your early practice.

If your earlier years as a witch was marked by imitation...

...now you are ready for far greater magick.

You've studied enough and experienced enough magickally to now create your own.

You have exciting times ahead with the black panther in your life.

Black panther symbolism also sends a signal to the Divine to examine whether you are ready for advancement.

And if the answer is yes, you have to show how serious you are about advancing your skills and knowledge by branching out into your own.

CREATE YOUR OWN SPELLS
PUT TOGETHER YOUR OWN RITUALS
WRITE DOWN PRAYERS
SURROUND YOURSELF WITH BLACK PANTHER SYMBOLISM

This is usually how some covens begin. You might be a priest or priestess in the making.

The black panther sends a strong signal that your soul wants to grow.

The black panther also brings power, protection and guidance.

You will be an outspoken, assertive, intrepid, sharply intelligent version of yourself.

The color black... is a void from which all things are created.

The color of the black panther is the color of so GREAT POTENTIAL.

BUTTERFLY

The butterfly appears to the people who are undergoing major changes in their lives. If it makes an appearance, it means you are ripe for a transformation.

The Butterfly represents transformation and reincarnation.

See... the butterfly transforms from a caterpillar to a full-grown butterfly. If you think about the process, it's nothing short of magical.

It's one of the marvels of Nature, the different stages of a butterfly's life.

If the butterfly makes an appearance in your life, prepare yourself for a big change, if it isn't going on already.

The presence is a form of enlightenment and an awakening.

Butterflies represent light, color, and joy. If you look closely at a butterfly, you will notice the rainbow of colors they hold, the colors too carry messages.

And in your spells and rituals, if enlightenment, awakening, and transformation is what you seek, then seek out the butterflies, search for them in the woods, go visit them in the zoo, or surround yourself with butterfly symbolism.

With a butterfly necklace, you are attracting transformative energy and making yourself open to changes, big or small.

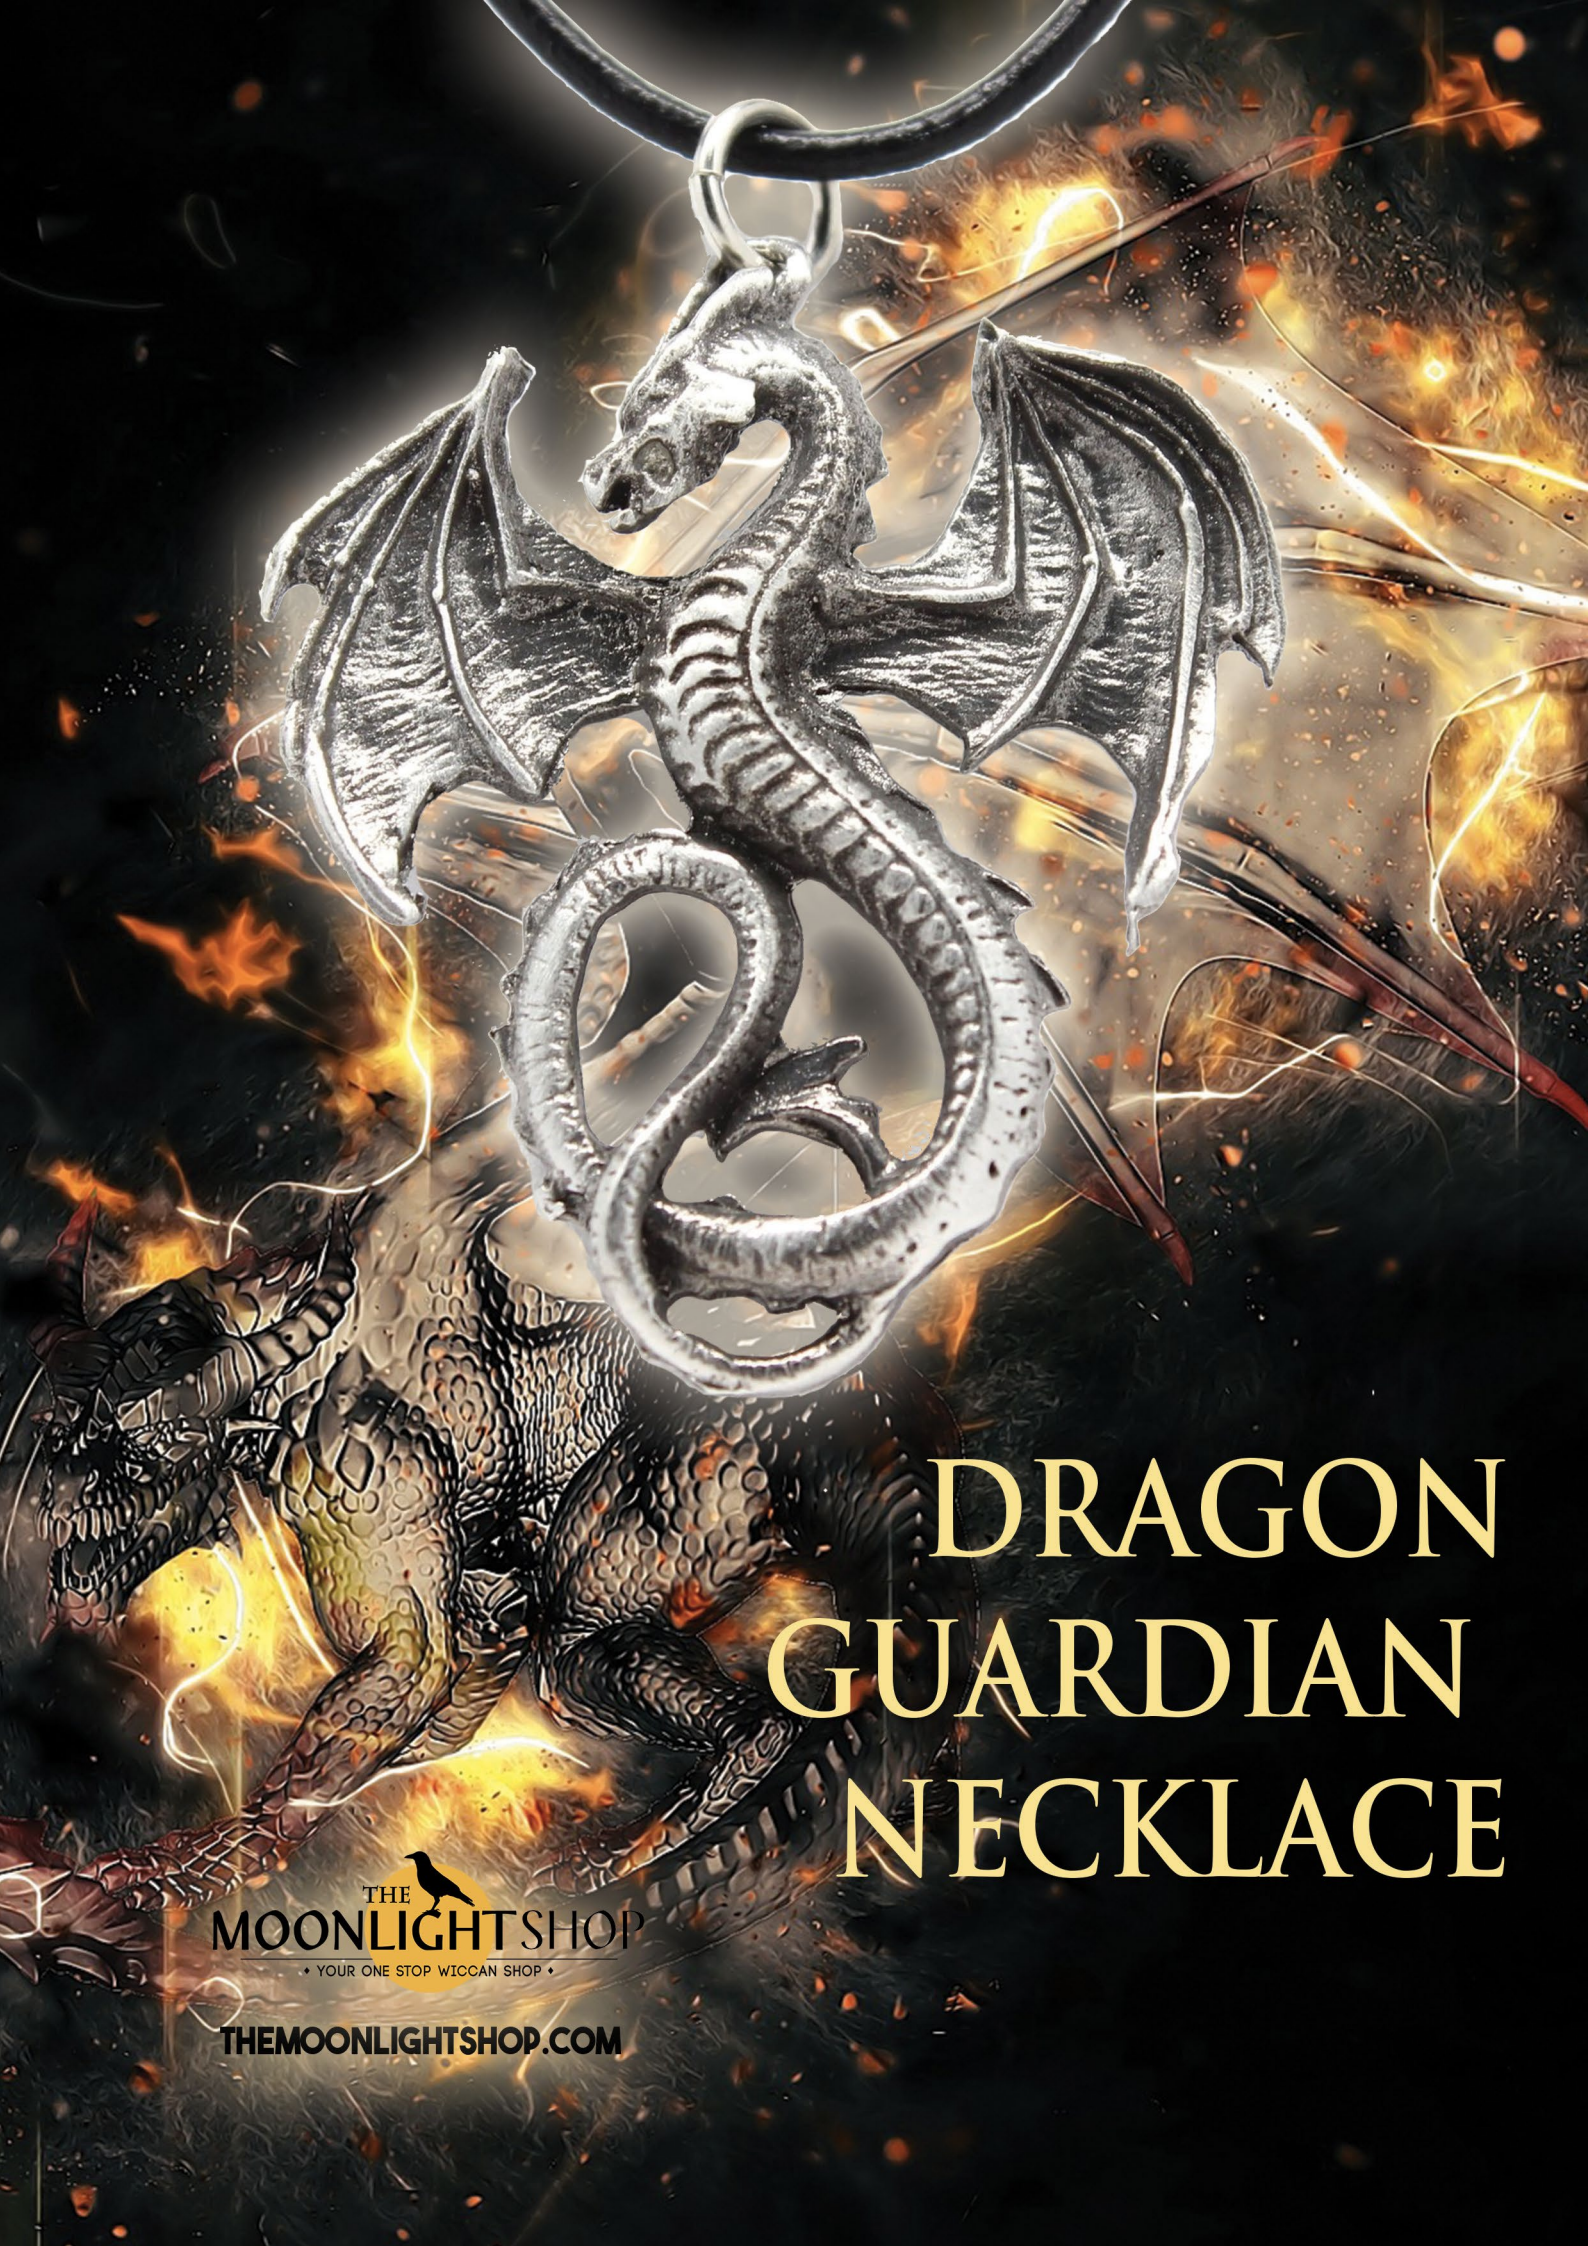

So if there was anything in your life that you think needs changing, seek out the butterfly.

Another thing you should know, any place with the presence of the butterfly means no negativity can infiltrate.

That light feeling you get when you are in the presence of butterflies is a result of an absence of negative energy in the area.

By wearing butterfly symbolism on your person or surrounding yourself with butterfly items in your home or office, you are letting the positivity of the butterfly wash over you and you are opening yourself up to attractive positive things!

The cat is the ultimate companion to a witch.

Cats and witches are meant to be together, like two peas in the same pod.

Working with a cat in your spells and rituals brings your magick to another level. Your spells are just stronger and more effective with a mini-assistant by your side.

Even if your cat doesn't help with the mixing of potions and all. What they are are conduits of energy. All their movements are a scattering of energy that's positive and beneficial to you.

Cat symbolism brings positive luck. In Egypt, cats were free to enter the homes of people so that they could bring the residents positive luck, good health, and wealth!

Cats are highly intuitive creatures. If you see them, it could mean that you need to get your intuition working by trusting it.

They are also sensual creatures, which means could mean that a sensual romance is about to come to you.

Having a black cat at home protects you from hexes. Cats see what people don't see, and they can paw it to get rid of it. If your cat seems to be chasing away something all the time, it's because they are.

Cats are very loyal, and with a cat, you have a lifelong alliance. You have a constant companion who is looking out for your best interests.

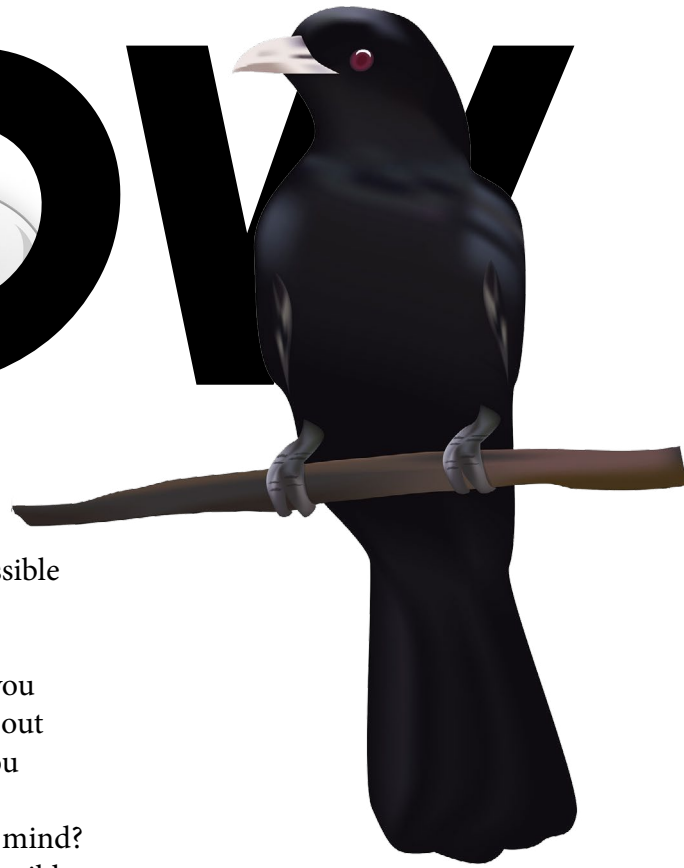

If you can master your telepathic communication with your cat, you will be privy to the secrets of the other realms! Cats know when there are spirits around and the spirits can send the messages through them.

Even when your cat passes on, don't think that it has left you for good. Your cat can move between the spirit world and the physical world easily, and in spirit, they are with you forever.

CROW

The Crow and the Raven are often mixed up. Like the Raven, the Crow is also a messenger of the gods.

The crow is associated with the longevity and prophecy.

Because of the crow's intelligence and cunning, it is associated with tricksters.

Sightings of the crow means that you are receiving messages - possible prophetic.

What do you see when you cast your spells? How about the most recent ritual you performed? Anything particular that comes to mind? Write it down for it is possibly a message from the gods which you have to analyze.

You are chosen for you have shown an intelligence that's capable of deciphering prophetic messages.

If you see the crow, chances are, you are in an advanced stage of your craft. You should not be afraid to push your boundaries further for you might uncover something that only you have been chosen to see.

When Crow comes into your life, you can also expect to gain a better understanding of yourself. Expect your reflexes to sharpen and your magick to become greater.

Use the tools that you have and use them well in your magickal workings. Surrounding yourself with crow symbolism, will widen your perspective, which will help take your magick to another level.

Sometimes, crow sightings can also mean that you need to be more watchful especially when it comes to your loved ones. It is possible that they need more than the usual protecting. A crow necklace or a shirt can also help keep your family safe.

Crows are also more social than ravens. Seeing crows could mean you also need to participate more in your community. Do you know the people living next to your house? Have you ever reached out to your neighbors?

Having a sense of community is also essential to balance and harmony in life. Does that sound like something you need to work on?

DRAGONFLY

Dragonflies are a symbol of renewal and transformation.

While the butterflies and snakes are also symbols of transformation, dragonflies are symbols of transformation brought about by maturation.

Dragonflies are the perfect examples of how maturing and becoming an adult can set you free.

There is also a wisdom to be gained from dragonflies, and it's learning how to appreciate even the smallest things, for everything is fleeting.

Dragonflies have a short lifespan, but they go through their lives with positivity and lightness.

Dragonfly sightings mean you are maturing rightfully. Surrounding yourself with dragonfly symbolism or by wearing

Even if your guilty of it, it doesn't mean you are fond of doing it.

If you see a dragonfly, it could be an urging for you to go and think about things deeply. Whatever could be going on in your life on the surface might not reflect what is going on underneath.

It could also be because you can stand to be more adaptable and flexible in your life. Since the dragonfly is a symbol of transformation, it could be showing itself to you to help you ease into transitions.

If you want deep explorations of your self, seek out the dragonfly in your spells and your rituals.

Dragonfly symbolism will also bring a light, airy, and more positive energy into any space. So think about dragonfly pillows, blankets, towels, artwork, mugs, and etc. Observe what they can do to any space that's devoid of light and positive energy.

OWL

Owls are creatures of truth, wisdom, and vision.

Owls are night creatures so they are associated with moon magick as well as the most powerful witches and sorcerers.

Since the owl is active at night, they have a greater awareness of their surroundings.

And another thing, owls are predators. They have extra clear, extra sharp night vision even in the dark, the better to see their prey.

Being predators, they have immense courage, sharp intelligence, and strong instincts.

Witches seek out the owl if they desire greater and more powerful magick and entry into the spiritual world.

Advanced witches believe that the owls are the link between the dark, unseen world and the world of light.

If you see owls around you or if you keep getting their images in your head, it could mean that they are sending you a message about uncovering truths in your life.

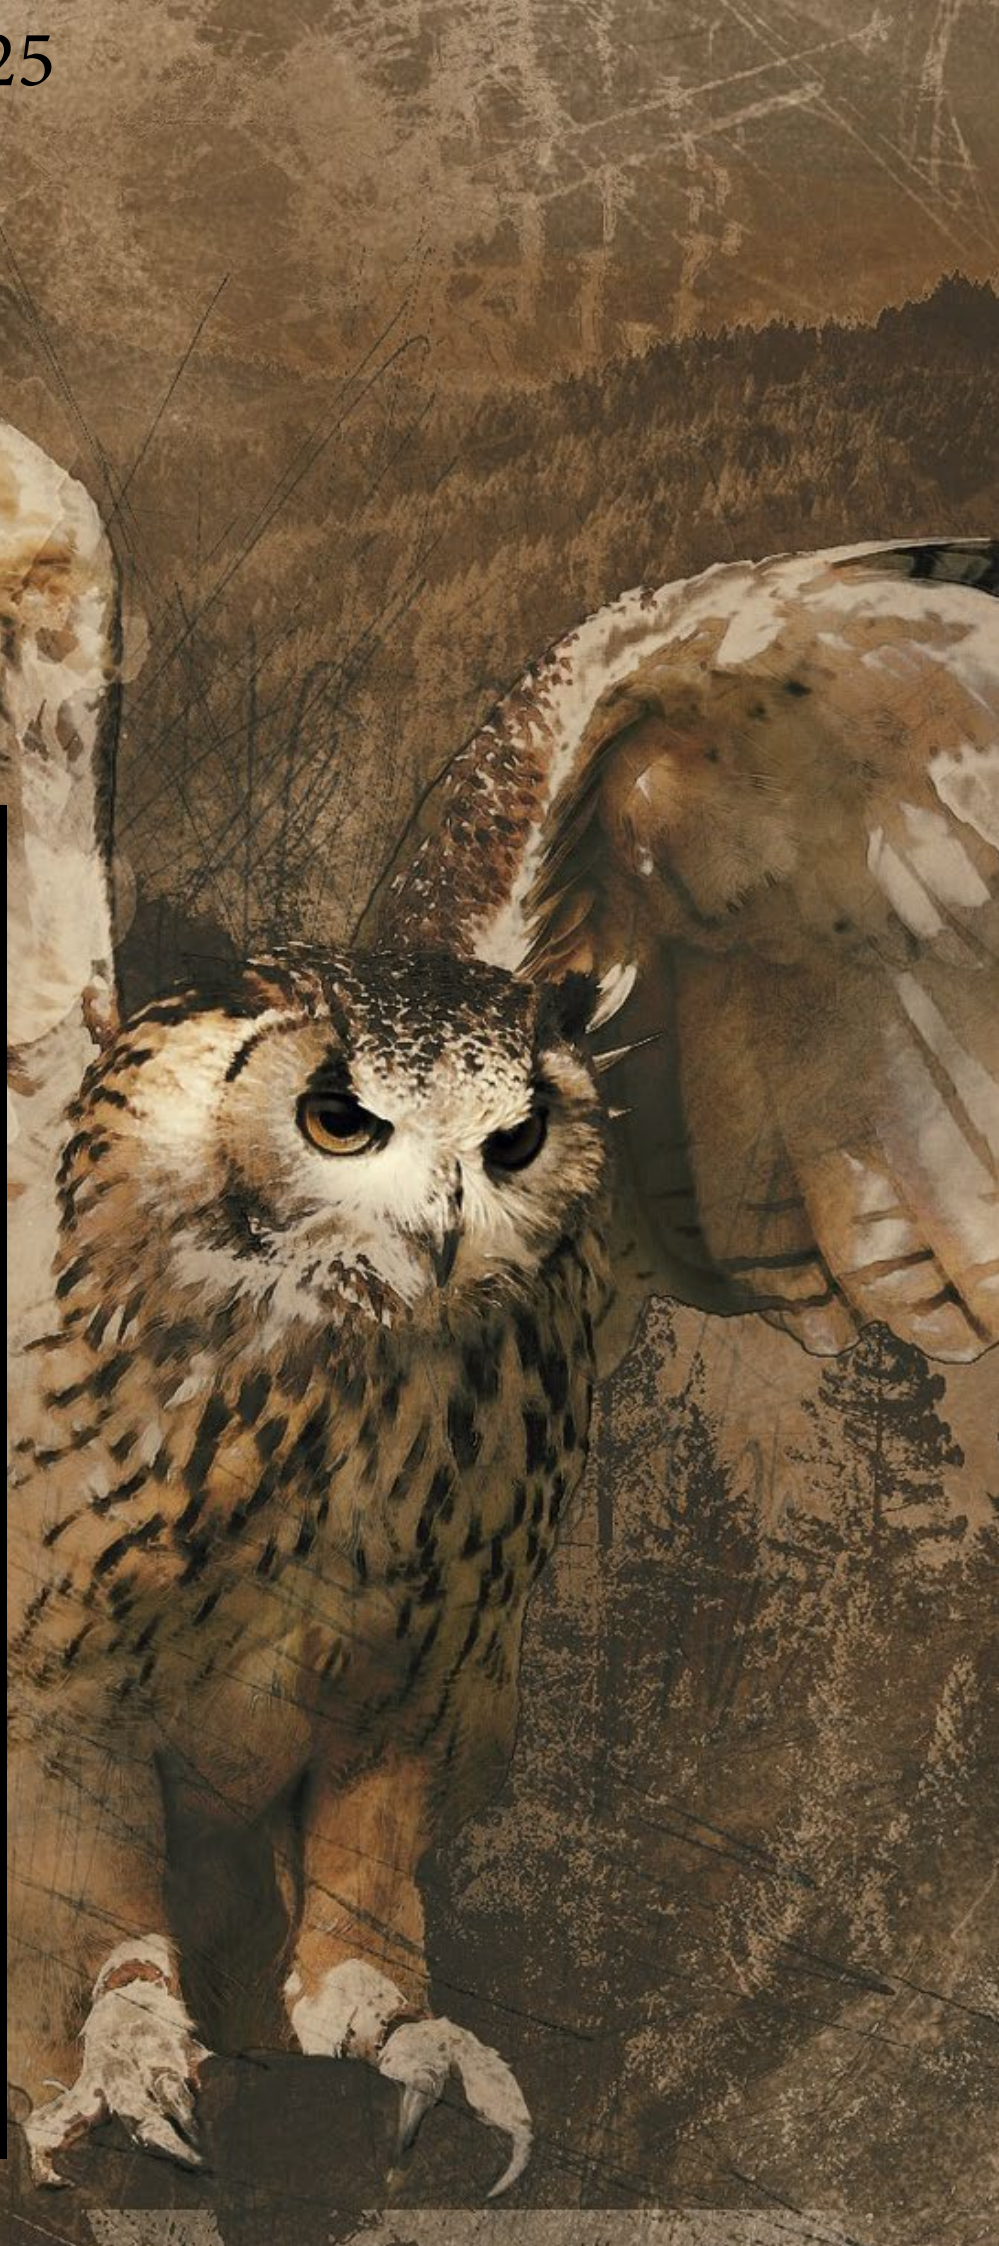

And if you struggle with knowing the truth in your present life, surrounding yourself with owl symbolism will help you uncover some truths and see behind the lies.

The Greek goddess Athena was always with an owl on her shoulder. It was the owl who would reveal unseen truths to her.

The Owl saw things that Athena couldn't from her blind side. Thanks to the owl, Athena could speak the whole truth instead of half truths.

You may call upon the owl to help you see truths, and to give you wisdom in your life. They are particularly helpful if you are in an industry where lying has become commonplace.

The owl will make sure you do not succumb to deceitful habits, as long as you cast spells and rituals and surround yourself with their symbolism.

RABBIT

The Rabbit is the symbol of Ostara. It represents fertility, intuition, positive luck, and on the flip side, your fears.

Female Rabbits can bear a new litter every 28 days and is highly connected to the lunar cycle and also associated with the goddess Hecate.

Rabbits are prey animals, and with this, Nature compensates them with the ability to bear 2 to 5 litters per year.

The Rabbit defends itself by its rapid quick movements or evasion. This movement is what makes larger predators give up and turn away.

Sightings of the rabbit tell you that fertile times are ahead.

Sightings of the rabbit tell you that fertile times are ahead.

At the same time, it also tells you that you need to take stock of your increasing fears and examine them.

Rabbits, being creatures of prey, can live their lives in fear, which is why you should reflect whether you are living your life in fear. And if you are, then it's about time to do something about it.

While the rabbit evades and escapes, you, however, can learn to face and overcome your fears. Since unlike rabbits, we are not running from actual predators.

Rabbits are also bringers of good luck. So if you surround yourself with rabbit symbolism, then you are opening yourself up to attractive good luck.

Rabbit symbolism such as a rabbit necklace or a rabbit's foot necklace will make you a magnet for positive luck!

Rabbits also have this frantic and fertile energy that you can channel in your magickal workings and your daily life.

Rabbits can make you fertile in your career, your relationships, your thoughts, and your health.

RAVEN

Ravens are sacred to the Goddess Morrigan.

Their deep black colors allow them to move between the worlds of the living and the dead.

The Raven has great knowledge. They are quite possibly the most intelligent of the birds and are not just symbols of the living and the dead, but also transformations.

Ravens typically show themselves if they have a message for you from the world of the dead.

If the raven appears in your life, it may also be a time of a great change in your consciousness.

It is highly likely that you are ready for a more advanced kind of magick.

The raven sees that you are fit for a higher learning. It also represents the element of air and so it's Wolves are loyal, strong, and intelligent. They inspire admiration and fear.

SNAKE

The Snake is charming, popular and charismatic but at the same time dignified.

Snakes move quietly and exude a magnetic energy.

When it comes to making decisions, snakes are quick and do not waste time thinking and agonizing over it.

The snake is definitive... and sightings of this majestic animal could point to you needing to be more secure with your decisions and trust in your ability to make the right decision for yourself.

Of course, the snake is also known for transformations because of their shedding. And if you're casting spells because you want something new or if you want reinvention, you should call upon the snake.

But there are more traits to admire in snakes.

Another thing is their ability to move stealthily before attacking prey. They can attack those which are way bigger than them.

With snakes, they do not let their size limit them.

You can learn from the ingenious ways of the snake.

Seek out the snake and surround yourself with snake symbolism if you would like to gain more expertise.

Snake symbolism, such as a snake necklace can also provide you protection.

Remember that the snake is fierce. Their eyes are hypnotic.

Filling your house of officespace with snake items can keep you safe from evil intentions.

And back to making changes in your life. If you'd like to quit the bad habits that are doing you no good, make sure you cast your spells and perform your rituals with snake symbols.

Seek out the raven if you feel like you've been stuck in your journey and you are not sure of which way to proceed.

The raven is a highly adaptable bird, and you could learn a lot from its adaptability.

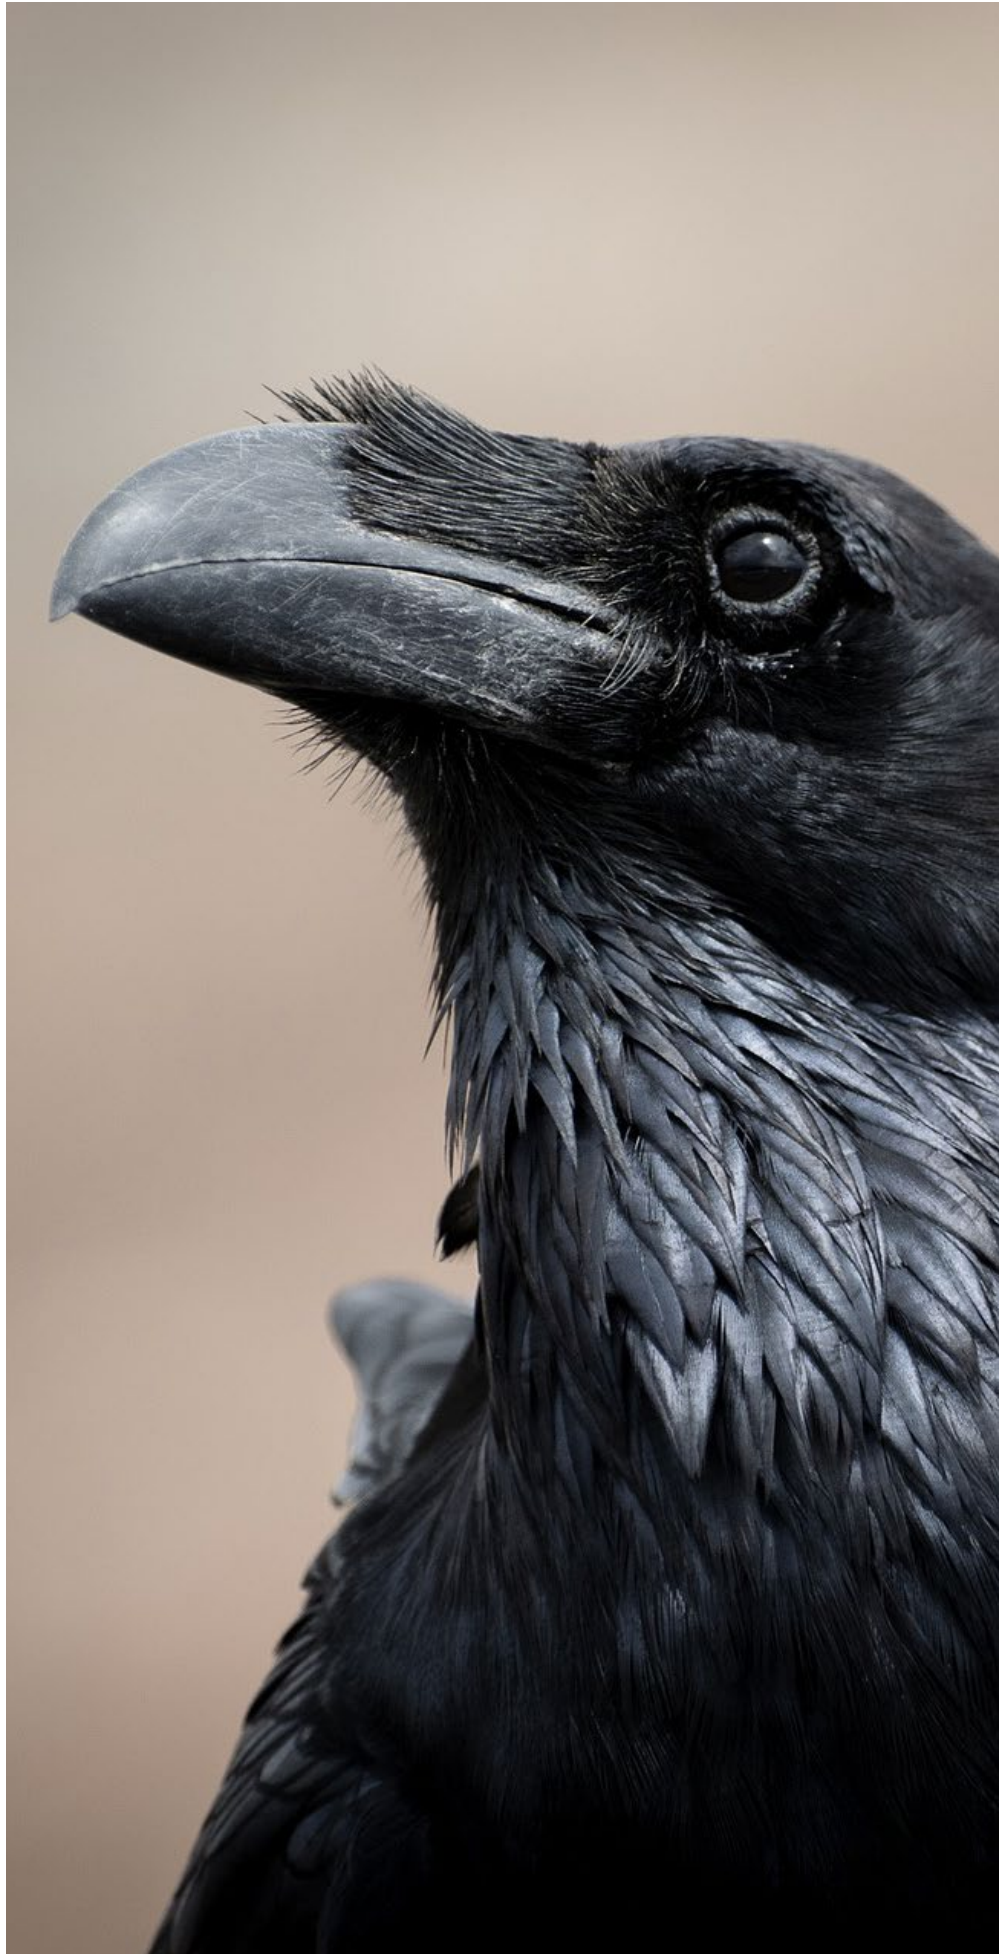

Surrounding yourself with raven symbolism such as a necklace, a blanket, a book, or a blanket sends a message to the extraordinary bird and says you are ready for something higher, deeper, and more challenging.

Notice how you will feel smarter, sharper, and more perceptive after letting the raven into your life.

Ravens are hardly ever seen by those new to the craft. Therefore, if you do see a raven, it means you've got something, a great personal power and that you should make use of it.

What naturally comes after the raven entering your life is:

- YOU EMBARKING ON NEW INTELLECTUAL PURSUITS
- BECOMING MORE AMBITIOUS IN YOUR PURSUITS
- BECOMING MORE WATCHFUL AND ALERT
- YOU HAVING INGENIOUS PROBLEM-SOLVING SKILLS
- YOU BECOMING MORE CUNNING IN YOUR WAYS
- A GREATER SENSE OF SELF-WORTH
- AN ENHANCEMENT IN SPEAKING OR VOCAL COMMUNICATION SKILLS
- MAKING WISER DECISIONS
- A GREATER SENSE OF LOYALTY TO YOUR FAMILY MEMBERS

WOLF

Wolves are loyal, strong, and intelligent. They inspire admiration and fear.

Wolves also have a very close relationship to the moon. They howl when there's a full moon almost as a salute to the Moon goddess.

Perhaps the most famous wolf in mythology is Fenrir. Fenrir was the son of the trickster Loki. After his birth, the other gods feared him and knew that only evil could come from him.

Fenrir kept growing to humongous proportions and it became more difficult to tie him down. The gods became even more afraid of his power and strength.

Odin had the dwarves create a magical restraint called Gleipnir. It was smooth and as soft as a silk ribbon band but very strong. The gods took it to Fenrir. The gods agreed to free him if he could not break out of the band himself.

But Fenrir was still reluctant to have it put on him. He asked that someone put their hand into his mouth as proof that the gods were acting in good faith.

Only Tyr, son of Odin was brave enough to step forward and put his right hand into Fenrir's mouth.

Fenrir was then bound with Gleipnir. Try as he might, he could not snap the band. Fenrir closed his mouth and bit off Tyr's hand at the wrist.

In this condition Fenrir was left alone, howling horribly with saliva running from his mouth until the time of Ragnarok.

WOLF SIGHTINGS

Sightings of the wolf means the wolf has called on you to work on some areas in your life.

Some areas include loyalty, intelligence, and strength.

This could translate to being more loyal to your friends and family; pursuing things that sharpen your intellect; and growing your physical strength such as engaging in physical activities.

Surrounding yourself with wolf symbolism will help you improve on those aspects in your life.

The more you call upon the wolf in your magickal workings, the more you grow into your individual self.

Don't be shocked if you find yourself taking on the traits of an alpha wolf. If that happens, it means that is your true calling and true position in your life.

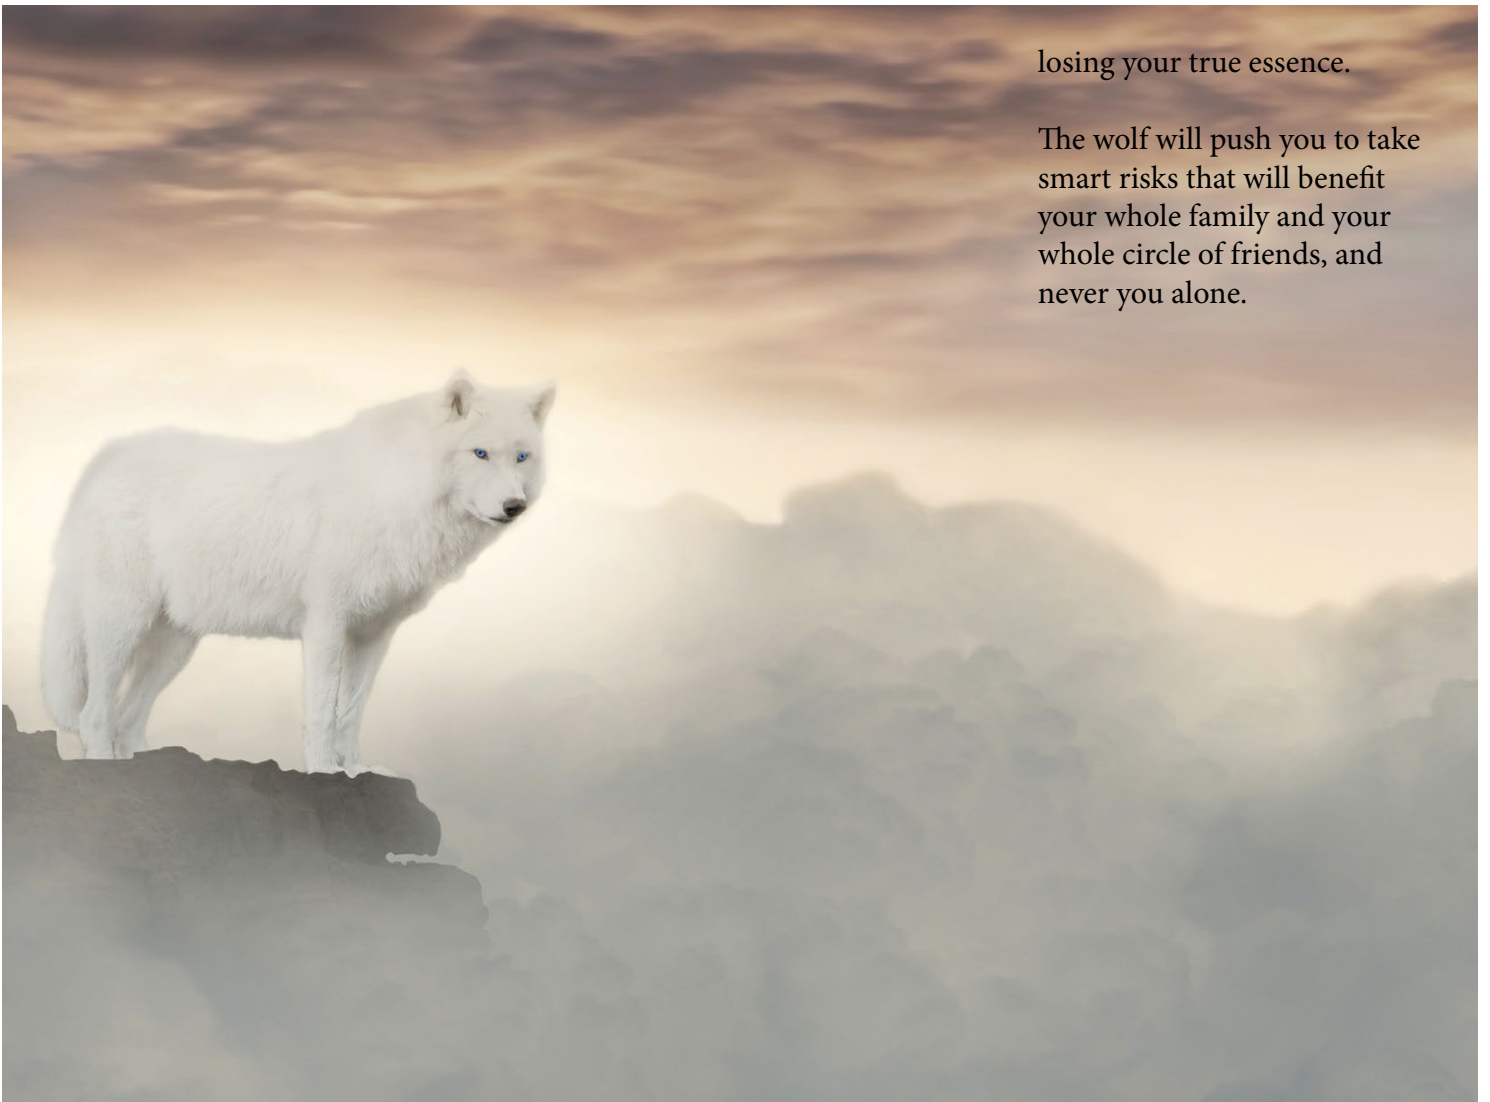

Maybe you were too timid and too submissive that you're losing your true essence.

The wolf will push you to take smart risks that will benefit your whole family and your whole circle of friends, and never you alone.
