Luxetips! Annual 12 Days of Luxetips Before Christmas Best of 2015

Hello Divas!

This holiday season simply give and show love. Tell someone you love them and that you care for them and thinking about them. It may be the greatest gift they ever receive.

For my Luxetips Diva loyalists, you know the deal. I will list my top products that wowed me this year and within the next days before Christmas, we will give away some of the products each day. This is a great way to get a treat for yourself or a loved one.

So without further ado, here is my Best of 2015 List!

1. Jord Wood Watches. \(http://luxetipsmag.com/luxetips-style-jord-wood-watches/\) I love Jord Wood Watches! They are luxurious, eco-friendly and affordable. It is the one watch I have that gets the most compliments. Love it!

And divas they have the good stuff: Chanel, Louis Vuitton, Gucci and more!

For the international traveller, this power kit is a must! This kit is especially designed to provide high-speed dual USB charging for smartphones, tablets or other mobile devices during international travel. It is fitted with a folding 2-prong USA style plug that accepts the included European, United Kingdom or Australian snap-on plug adapters. Fab!

Be sure to check back here next week to see which of these items we will give away before Christmas!

Toodles!
