

If you are looking for a fun, fast, practical and easy way to become a confident presenter,
this is it!

CONFIDENCE
C O M P A N Y

We bottle confidence!

The Speaker's Training Camp[®] the highly regarded and internationally recognised presentation course is the flagship training program offered by the Confidence Company.

Anna Coleman, a certified and licenced instructor of the course is the director of the Confidence Company and a confidence coach. Anna founded the Hillmac Electrical Speech Contest in Napier in 2016. She is passionate about growing confident children. A trained speech and drama teacher, who teaches at Karamu High School, Anna says 'the course is so effective, because it's practical, the tools are easy and make it much quicker to plan and structure.'

WE WILL COVER:

- How to Identify your key message
- Have a clear, easy to follow structure
- Cut your preparation time in half
- Hold the audience in the palm of your hand
- Bubble over with confidence and enthusiasm
- Maximise the power of your voice
- Never be guilty of 'death by power point' again
- Make boring facts and figures exciting
- And to take the fear out of your public speaking once and for all.

WHAT CLIENTS SAY –

'The environment created was safe and allowed for really great feedback.'

'Anna was great at building confidence in our own abilities.'

'I now have strategies for my nerves.'

'I feel so much more confident about putting together a presentation and also speaking in public.'

'The most important thing I learnt was how to structure my speech – it's so easy.'
