

We've partnered with iconic Finnish design house Marimekko to celebrate the 60th anniversary of their signature floral print: 'Unikko'. In Helsinki, the mornings are slow, the drinks are dark and spicy, and the snacks are plentiful. Our Scandinavian menu is a celebration of Finland's love of communal eating.

SCANDINAVIAN BRUNCH & SMORGASBORDS

A custom made spiced ginger cookie printed with Marimekko's limited edition Unikko anniversary print, and traditional fresh-made buns from Sydney's Scandinavian artisan bakers Fika.

Dark Rye Toast with Lingonberry Jam + Ricotta 12

Real Finns don't eat sourdough. The miniature red Lingonberry grows like wildfire in Finland's northern forests and has a delicious dry-sweet flavour that we think is best balanced by a good creamy ricotta.

Hot Smoked Salmon, Creme Fraiche & Dill on Rye 19

A Scandinavian culinary classic. Tasmanian smoked salmon served on top a mélange of creme fraiche, honey and 'Honk' – the deliciously sweet and spicy Finnish mustard made by Kaarina Honkvaara in Tasmania – topped with pickled cucumbers and onions, fresh rocket and radishes with a delicate touch of dill.

Brown Sugar Spiced Hot Chocolate 9

A mug of dark hot chocolate by Swedish cacao artisans Mork served with a marshmallow, a pot of brown sugar and a miniature cinnamon shaker so that you can sweeten and spice to your liking.

Scandi Candy Iced Chocolate 10

In Finland, Saturday is karkkipäivä ("candy day") – the one day of the week when children are allowed to let loose at the pick-and-mix candy station. Our homemade cinnamon-dusted iced chocolate is served with a small selection of Scandinavian candy in celebration of this excellent tradition.
