

CARD TYPES

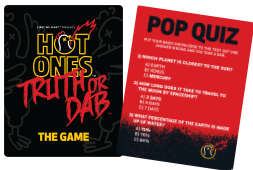

TRUTH CARDS

These awkward questions will pit players against each other and burn bridges as contestants debate whether to tell the truth or dive into spice-ville!

ROAST CARDS

Ready to hear what your friends really think about you? For these cards, you don't answer the question. Instead, you have a choice: take a dab, or let all players roast you on whatever subject is written on the card.

POP QUIZ CARDS

These cards will test your trivia knowledge. Each card has three questions. Get one answer wrong, and you'll be on a one-way ticket to spice town.

BFF TRIVIA CARDS

These cards will test how well you REALLY know your so-called "BFFs". Each contestant must answer one question about all players. To be fair, if you just met another player within the last year, you don't have to answer the question about that player.

ONE-UP CARDS

After each round is over, all players must try to one-up each other by answering the One-Up question. This is a dog-eat-dog mechanic and creates some of the funniest moments of the game. Get ready to spill some hilariously embarrassing memories, and make it count. Because the lamest answer of the group (decided by vote) will have to face the wrath of the Last Dab.

LIKE THE SHOW, THE GAME IS SIMPLE: ANSWER DEEPLY PERSONAL AND POTENTIALLY AWKWARD QUESTIONS, OR FACE THE LAST DAB.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

x150

x25

x34

x10

x31

250 Question Cards

The Last Dab Hot Sauce
1.69 FL OZ (50 mL)
Wings not included

8 Spoons

The spoons are disposable.
After the game is over, we suggest throwing them away.

TO WING OR NOT TO WING? THAT IS THE QUESTION

Before playing this game, you need to make a decision: are you playing with or without chicken wings?

While both options make for an epic game night, we strongly suggest cooking up some wings or ordering them through delivery (ask for 'em naked so that you can add sauce yourself). Make sure to get 3-5 wings per player. If you don't like wings, use crackers, vegan nuggets, chips, vegetables or other dipable foods instead.

If there's no time for wings or the delivery guy is late, we've got you covered with perfectly portioned Dab spoons. When it's time, just pour some Dab sauce on the spoon and send it down the hatch.

WARNING!

This game includes the hottest sauce on Hot Ones™: The Last Dab. Do not touch your eyes or any private areas when using the Last Dab sauce.

#TRUTHORDABGAME

Before taking your first dab, make sure to try a tiny drop of it to ensure you can handle the heat. If the Last Dab sauce is too extreme for your taste buds, don't eat it. Instead, play with another hot sauce of your choice.

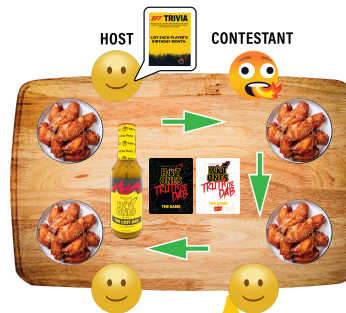

GAME SET UP

- Form two deck piles on a table: one with the Black cards and one with the White cards.
- Place the Last Dab sauce and spoons in the middle of the table.
- Keep a glass of milk and/or water CLOSE by.
- Get napkins ready. Things might get messy.

HOW TO PLAY

- The rounds kick off with the youngest player as the Host, aka "Sean Evans."
- The Host draws a Question card from the Black card pile (shuffle the cards beforehand).
- The Host then asks the question on the card to the player to the left of them, aka "The Contestant."
- The Contestant has a choice: either answer the question honestly, or face the wrath of the Last Dab. After the Contestant is done with their turn, they become the next Host.
- They then draw a new Question card and ask it to the next contestant to their left. This rotation continues until all players have had 1 turn being the Contestant.
- All players then move on to the One-Up Challenge to complete the round.
- Repeat this cycle for as long as you can take the heat!

#TRUTHORDABGAME

ONE-UP CHALLENGE

- Each round concludes with a One-Up Challenge, where all the players face off against each other.
- Any player draws a One-Up prompt card from the White card deck pile and reads it out loud to everyone else.
- All players must then try to "one-up" the others by answering the prompt in the most entertaining way. The player with the lamest answer (or no answer at all) must take a dab.
- The loser is decided by a vote between all players after all answers have been given.
- In the event of a tie, both losers must dab.

HOW TO WIN

- Like the show, there is no real "winner". The big win is watching your friends squirm under the heat of the Last Dab or listening to their cringeworthy answers.

HOW TO DAB

- As you've seen on the show, the Last Dab packs a mean punch.
- Please be very cautious with how much sauce you use with each Dab.
- Before the game starts, toss the wings for full coverage, using 1.5mL of the Last Dab per wing.
- It is highly recommended to use just a pinch of the Last Dab.
- Overeating the Last Dab can cause indigestion.

ADDITIONAL RULES

- All questions must be answered truthfully and with details about who, what and where the story happened.
- If one player thinks another player is lying, they can call them out on it and force that player to Dab unless the true story is revealed.
- There is no set amount of Hot Sauce to use for each dab. Do only what you are comfortable with. We do not suggest exceeding a portion size of 1-1.5 ML per dab.
- To put out the 'flames' in your mouth, feel free to take a large sip of milk. It'll be quite the relief...
