

Interiors

The art of glass

In a departure from its traditional cast-iron cookers, AGA has introduced a sleek black glass model, ERA, at £19,900. It features touch controls, an induction hob next to a cast-iron hotplate and a fan oven next to two radiant-heat, cast-iron ovens (0800 111 6477; www.agaliving.com)

Pick of the crop Kitchen aprons

Wolf & Badger
Kate Austin
Designs apron
in Red Pink
Wide Stripe,
£102, Wolf & Badger (020-
3695 0011;
[www.wolfand
badger.com](http://www.wolfand badger.com))

Bagru Blue
apron, £38,
Molly Mahon (01342
825700;
[www.molly
mahon.com](http://www.molly mahon.com))

The Organic Company Pocket
apron in Blue, €54.90,
Manufactum
(00 492 30 993 9095;
[www.manu
factum.com](http://www.manu factum.com))

▼ Bowled over

Handmade in Italy in a pottery studio that dates back 18 generations, these Scalloped splatterware bowls, £48 each, are available in four colourways, from Montes & Clark (07754 072897; www.montesandclark.com)

► Timeless sink

British manufacturer Shaws of Darwen makes durable fireclay sinks by the same methods employed since 1897. The Bradshaw inset double bowl sink, £1,233, has a low, offset dividing wall, designed to make it easy to wash large roasting trays (01254 775111; www.shawsofdarwen.com)

▲ Bright ideas

The Supermoon pendant light in Antiqued Brass, £300, is sure to enhance any kitchen. It's shown here with a Larger Moon wall light, £120, and Portobello table lamp, £230, all from Pooky (020-7351 3003; www.pooky.com) 🐉

