

Jute Pouch Bags

The image shows three jute pouch bags hanging from a clothesline. The bags are made of a coarse, natural fiber material. The bag on the left is the largest and has two handles. The middle bag is smaller and also has two handles. The bag on the right is the smallest and is a drawstring style. The clothesline is a dark cord with several wooden clothespins. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with green foliage and a white fence.
