Jeffrey "Red" George

Born in 1980, Red grew up with a love of art, drawing his inspiration from nature, a tendency shared with many First Nations artists. "My work reflects my culture: its blessings along with its inner pains and suffering. My journey through life has led me to my native culture and traditions, to the place where I am honoured to share my heart and soul through my artistic gift."

Nathalie Coutou

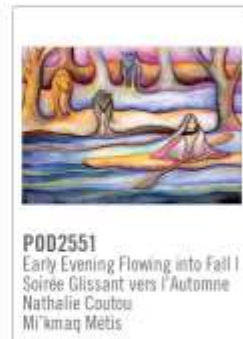

Nathalie Coutou - Mi'kmaq Métis, Québec.

Nathalie Coutou was born on a farm with a kennel of over 800 sled dogs in the province of Québec. As a child she was given the freedom to explore her imagination and was inspired by her French-European father's artistry alongside her mother's enduring joy and Mi'kmaq ancestry. Painting and sketching soon became her way to express herself.

Nathalie Coutou est née sur une ferme avec un élevage de plus de 800 chiens de traîneaux, dans la province de Québec. Enfant, elle a eu la liberté d'explorer son imagination et a été inspirée par l'art de son père franco-européen aux côtés de la joie de vivre de sa mère et d'ascendance Mi'kmaq. La peinture et les esquisses sont rapidement devenus sa façon de s'exprimer.
