Take Home Readers Buying Guide	1	Joy Cowley Classics Collection	41
Hi-Lo Readers Buying Guide	26	Indigenous Buying Guide	44
Phonics and Decoding Buying Guide	31

Dear Principal, teachers and P&C,

Welcome to our 21st edition of the Take Home Reader and Literacy Buying Guide.

The highlights of 2024 offerings include:

- An extensive Phonics and Decoding section – we have readers and resources to cover an extensive course. The readers can cover a complete course from pre-reading through to grade 1.
- Take Home Readers – an extensive range in stock from all of the main Australian publishers.
- Indigenous Studies – have new publications for 2024 including the award-winning Walkabout Cards.
- Big Books – Australian editions of the Joy Cowley Classics big books and small books are still available.
- Hi-Lo – exciting new publications in the eXplore Hi-Lo series are available for 2024.

You can buy online at www.network-ed.com.au or email a scanned order form to info@network-ed.com.au.

Happy Teaching in 2024!

Celebrations and Events

CELEBRATIONS AND EVENTS

The Celebrations and Events levelled readers cover events of cultural significance here in Australia and for our Asian neighbours.

These can be used:

- as Take Home Readers,
- as Guided Readers,
- and in English lessons!

Set 1: 20 levelled readers
plus 2 Teachers' Resource Guides
and Reading Records

Set 2: 20 levelled readers
plus 2 Teachers' Resource Guides
and Reading Records

Phonics and Decoding

The books can be used a stand-alone program or integrated as reading exercises in a pre-existing program, with a focus on Phonics and Decoding.

Non-Fiction

The crowded curriculum is a problem. Programming content by inclusion in the literacy block is a bonus. These titles have the focus as literacy and secondly, as curriculum content. The driver is READING to LEARN while the student is LEARNING to READ.

ACARA Perspectives

ACARA perspectives are integral to these readers, and provide an opportunity to include perspectives on Celebrations and Events in Australia and across the Asian region – teaching students about our closest neighbours.

Teacher Guides

We have also produced activity books for Celebrations and Events. These activities will help teachers to integrate Celebrations and Events into their classrooms and save time on classroom preparation. We also have an Answers book available to again help teachers save time!

Healthy Me!

HEALTHY ME! SET 1

As part of the ACARA directives the Healthy Me! sets cover well-being, STEM concept topics, disease and hygiene, and the social-being. An exhaustive coverage of the topics with Set 1 reading recovery levels from 8–28 and Set 2 from 1–6. Beautifully presented and illustrated these are ideal for guided readers, take home readers and a resource for treatment in the classroom.

The Healthy Me! series incorporates the following Australian Curriculum HPE content:

- ACPPS001: Identifying things they are good at and describing how these have changed over time.
- ACPPS003: Identify people and demonstrate protective behaviours and other actions that help keep themselves safe and healthy.
- ACPPS005: Identify and describe emotional responses people may experience in different situations.
- ACPPS006: Identify actions that promote health, safety and wellbeing.
- ACPPS015: Describe their own strengths and achievements and those of others, and identify how these contribute to personal identities.
- ACPPS016: Describe physical and social changes that occur as children grow older and discuss how family and community acknowledge these.
- ACPPS018: Recognise situations and opportunities to promote health, safety and wellbeing.
- ACPPS020: Identify and practise emotional responses that account for own and others' feelings.
- ACPPS021: Examine health messages and how they relate to health decisions and behaviours.
- ACPPS024: Recognise similarities and differences in individuals and groups, and explore how these are celebrated and respected.
- ACPPS033: Examine how success, challenge and failure strengthen personal identities.
- ACPPS035: Describe and apply strategies that can be used in situations that make them feel uncomfortable or unsafe.
- ACPPS036: Identify and practise strategies to promote health, safety and wellbeing.
- ACPPS038: Investigate how emotional responses vary in depth and strength.

Healthy Me! Set 1 was written to create awareness of mental health and to help promote many wellbeing strategies that may benefit the health of all children.

HEALTHY ME! SET 2

Healthy Me! Set 2 is a set of 20 readers which treat the foundations of being healthy from a disease perspective, mental health, and general well-being. The series covers science foundations of living and non-living, staying alive requirements, size of living things, microbes and germs, sickness and treatment, pandemics, vaccinations, isolation and the importance of nutrition.

These are presented with levelled literacy texts which are ideal for readers who are beginners. Beautifully presented with full images and graphics – these are fun to read and review by students. They provide reading opportunities as well as foundational science content suitable for any classroom. The content provides many opportunities for discussion and oral language as well as use as guided readers and take-home readers. It treats the important elements of well-being and management of their own health as a foundation principle.

An essential series for early childhood education to be used as a simple reader or part of a program of work in science. The reading level is set at foundation level of fluency.

Readers' Theatre

READERS' THEATRE

Fun plays of popular stories for children. Children will love play-acting these beautiful stories in roles. These read-aloud plays are perfect for a class divided into partners and small groups for simultaneous reading of the rows in turn. The advantages are that everyone has equal reading time, and a chance to play all characters.

Peer teaching and wanting to read each story over and over again happens naturally. The resultant social bonding and shared laughter strengthen emotional well-being and classroom friendships.

The stories were developed by a very experienced writer and classroom teacher, Ellie Hallett. Teachers love how the story plays only require an introductory demonstration – and then handing over the learning to the children.

A brilliant classroom activity to encourage oral language, reading fluency, and many other skills. An invaluable resource for the classroom which should not be missed at this great price for the set.

Drama is an essential inclusion in the literacy curriculum for Australian schools as part of the ACARA requirements. It is a proven means of accelerating literacy outcomes and many other factors which impact the cohesiveness of the classroom and the joy of learning. As a teacher, you will be shaping your class as a winning team with significantly improved outcomes in all subjects by happy children and loving learning. And you benefit the most with satisfaction and less stress from behavior problems.

Wellbeing and Resilience outcomes from the research literature on the benefits of classroom drama are outlined below.

Skills:

- oral language,
- communication,
- teamwork,
- literacy improvements.

Engagement of all the senses:

- auditory,
- physical movement,
- speech, and
- visual skills.

15 levelled drama readers

Outcomes that have been observed and recorded:

- agency to be able to manage different situations and events by improved faith in your abilities,
- self-esteem through completion of a difficult task,
- teamwork – knowing that everyone is dependent upon each other in a class play, and
- resilience by all of these factors coming into play when things are difficult.

Ways to read this story

This story is suitable for school and home. Some have to read others can help.

- With a partner or small group, take it in turns to read the story.
- Read first! This helps you to say each word clearly.
- Think of yourselves as actors by adding lots of facial and vocal expression. Small bits of silence are more dramatic energy. These techniques will bring the story to life.
- If you meet a new word, try to hear it done and then say it again. If you have any questions, ask your teacher or a reading buddy.
- Don't be scared of unusual words. They will become your new best friends. These words strengthen your general knowledge and enable you to become somebody rich in your day-to-day life!

Here's how!

Once upon a time there was a little girl whose name was Goldilocks.

In case you are wondering, the word look is another name for last.

Goldilocks loved going for walks in the early morning before the sun became too hot.

Hi-Lo Readers Buying Guide 2024

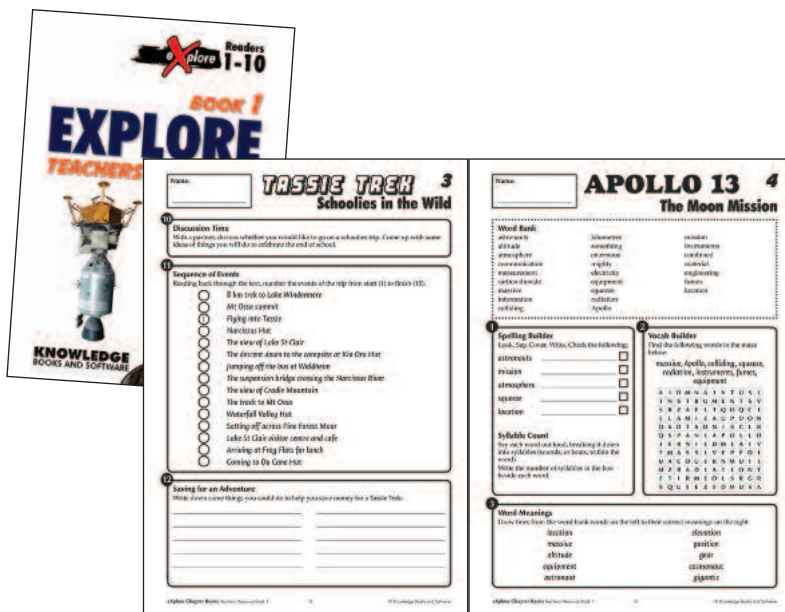

EXPLORE HI-LO CHAPTER BOOKS SET 1

This series was developed by Australian authors for Australian readers. eXplore Chapter Books Set 1 covers Reading Recovery levels 19-28 (approximately 6-7 years old), but the content is suitable for adolescents and adults. The sight words are introduced to be reviewed before reading. And after reading, there are extension exercises to improve reading and writing skills. You are all experiencing students with self-esteem and anxiety concerns in regard to success with reading. We are addressing this “epidemic” of perception of student failure with reading which can be addressed with the right content and directed help from the teacher.

The content is curriculum-based whether this be related to Australian history – for example, the Gold Rushes or Leichhardt – Indigenous perspectives, stories related to our Asian neighbours, and Sustainability. These books were designed to provide short sentences, using informal vernacular without slang or crude-talk, to assist fluency of reading across numerous pages. It is designed specifically for the student who is not practising their reading and is in serious danger of regression in competence. Reading frequency is well-researched as an obvious factor in improving fluency. These books may be “easy” or below some students’ level of competency, but practising is essential for fluency.

The Teacher Guides are comprehensive. They contain Before Reading exercises which address familiarity with the sight words, and After Reading exercises which extending into reading, writing, and comprehension. It is aimed at building word vocabulary, sight words, and writing practice exercises. It is unashamedly repetitive, to allow fluency with some of these difficult sight words. The exercises are extensive and allow plenty of variety for the students. This series can be used as Take Home Readers, Guided Readers for use in classrooms, and as library titles in the children and adolescent sections. Teachers can address specific topics to cover in the crowded curriculum using these books for general reference titles. For example, ANZAC Day, Indigenous perspectives, goal-setting, well-being classes, Australian history, explorers and many more examples.

Knights needed many skills and expensive equipment and horses. They also had to be good fighters and horsemen.

To do well in a battle you had to have good gear. This gear included armour, swords, lances and other weapons. You needed to have archers to fire a lot of arrows as well as soldiers on foot. Horses had to be trained for battle. You also needed to train to make sure you were ready for the battles.

If they were successful in a battle, they could be given a house with land and workers. The knight was a soldier for the nobles and kings. Scan this code for a link to knights in battle.

EXPLORE HI-LO CHAPTER BOOKS SET 2

Many students in Australian schools struggle with their reading, but this can be addressed and rectified. These students do not enjoy reading and do not pick up books naturally. They consider it a chore, and may experience anxiety around the idea of reading. They need an informal, joyous style of writing that shows confidence in them completing a book, and one which is not formal or too difficult. If the level of text is easy, it means they go faster but at least they are practising their reading and engaging with books.

Humour can also be important, so anything relevant to the topics of these books that is humorous or ridiculous is also included.

You will also note the repetitive use of sight words, the informal nature of the content, and, lastly, the use of a central character on their own reaching for the inner strength to do something bigger than themselves. This is to inspire the students to "have another go" at school and at improving their literacy. I remember teaching some students who basically, at the age of 11-12, had given up and considered themselves failures who would never get anywhere in life. This was heart-breaking for me and their parents, but worse for those students who faced a less than fulfilled and happy life. We need to break that feeling step-by-step!

eXplore Chapter Books Set 2 covers Reading Recovery levels 14-20 (approximately 6-7 years old), but the content is suitable for adolescents and adults.

In Australia, it is common to have a possum around the house. They are marsupials which means they have pouches for their babies. They are cute, furry animals with big, bushy tails.

Possoms eat fruit like bananas and apples. They like to live in the ceiling of the house where it's warm and dry. They are nocturnal and sleep during the day. At night, they feed and fight and make lots of noise. This was not good for me when I had to work all day.

8. Migration Challenges

Animals have been migrating for thousands of years. However, many things affect their journey. Humpback whales have been caught in shark nets when swimming too close to beaches. Some tourists don't follow the rules about giving them their space in the water.

Fences have been put up in many areas in Africa for cattle stations. However, they have also stopped the migration of the wildebeest in some areas. This stops them from getting to food and water and many are dying. If these animals die out, predators like lions and hyenas will also suffer.

Safety gear is very important to avoid bad injuries. Head injuries can be very serious. They can be reduced by wearing a good helmet.

What is a good helmet? This is a helmet that protects your face, teeth, and jaw, as well as your brain. It may stop serious injuries to your face!

If you fall off the bike at speed, you can hit the ground very hard. Always wear a good helmet! Don't get the cheap ones - your skull is too important!

With so many planets and galaxies out there, why is there silence? If there is very smart life in the universe, why is there no contact? The intelligent life would have to travel for a long time, and faster than the speed of light.

Why would they want to be here? Are they hiding out on Earth? Would they come all the way from another star just to be a tourist? Are there aliens already here living among us?

Phonics and Decoding Buying Guide 2024

COMIC DECODERS

The beautiful comic format was chosen to provide an appealing and familiar format to beginning readers. The story unfolds and provides oral language opportunities with the graphics.

The text is structured for decoding so it is very limited in word range. The children will be able to decode or be presented with prior familiarisation with sight words. Children will immediately find these attractive and fun readers a great way to practise their decoding.

Phonics skills are built sequentially with full teacher directions given with each reader. Each reader is unique in layout and character presentation to provide an engaging and rich reading experience. The more children practise their reading skills the faster they will achieve fluency and independent reading. It is strongly advised to provide daily opportunities for children to read.

The series covers a sequential plan of work and can be an additional support to other classroom activities. The set covers the initial consonants and then blends. There are teacher guidance notes for each of these readers with listed sight words to review before starting on the series.

SOUNDS AND LETTERS

This is a set of 22 readers to support the teaching of phonics in classrooms. The foundations of reading must come from the sounds of the syllables and letters. This is a step which is essential for this reading process to be effective and quick. The first step in learning to read is to recognise the letters and associated sounds. Children are introduced to all the letters and sounds for decoding practice in this set of 22 readers.

These are readers which use repetition and engaging visuals to introduce specific short vowels, long vowels, consonants and blends. Children will enjoy the engaging graphics as well as learning their initial foundation sounds. The phonemic awareness stage is essential before children can progress to decoding and reading. If this foundational stage is not mastered, children may have trouble with decoding and reading. An important stage and classroom work is reinforced with these simple readers.

TAS AND FRIENDS

Tas and Friends is a series of 100 readers for developing skills in decoding. When children are learning the basic foundations of phonics they need continual practise of these foundation elements. Readers provide a perfect opportunity to introduce the vowel, consonant, syllable or blend to use and then practice.

Children build confidence and fluency and are ready to decode unknown words. Readers speed up the literacy program in schools.

A general outline of what is covered in the series is as follows;

Consonants – all consonants, plus consonant blends ck, th, etc.

Vowels – all vowels: a, e, i, o, u.

Sight words – words that the children have to memorise. Sight words used in these readers cover the first 80 words of the Dolch list of commonly used words. Words such as the, and, see, come, what, are, make, down, help, etc.

Set 1 covers CSVC – consonant, short vowel, consonant combinations, e.g. Tas, cat, mat, rat etc.

Set 2 covers CCSVC – consonant, consonant, short vowel, consonant combinations, e.g. trip, bird, long.

Set 3 covers CLVC – consonant, long vowel, consonant combinations, e.g. gate, and sight words – by, does.

Set 4 covers CVC – consonant, vowel, vowel, consonant combinations, e.g. long vowel digraph – 'ai' such as main, grain, and sight words – could, food.

Set 5 covers Sets 1-4 skills – revision and mastery set of 20 readers. The main difference is the amount of words is doubled per page as the children should be a lot more fluent after reading Sets 1-4.

Joy Cowley Classics Collection

Grandpa, Grandpa,
come with me.
Let's go fishing in the sea.

So the people ran and ran and got the giant some bread.

"I want some bread!"
roared the giant.

"In the tub you go."

In went the cow,
wishy-washy, wishy-washy.

"I want some honey!"
roared the giant.

"Get me some honey!"

I am a smarty pants,
Rum-tum-ting.
Here is a jungle vine.
See me swing.

and swing...

Indigenous Buying Guide 2024

HISTORY OF THE FIRST AUSTRALIANS

Each set comprises 20 readers and a Teachers' Resource.
Set 4 contains an additional Assessment Guide.

Beautifully illustrated with original art – these are an ideal addition to any Indigenous or reader series in schools. These would be ideal as Take Home Readers, Guided Readers or HiLo readers.

The content is suitable for any study of Indigenous Australians. ACARA place Indigenous context as a priority area and with the inclusion of literacy blocks this series is able to be programmed covering both requirements.

WALKABOUT WELLBEING ACTIVITY CARDS

Winner: Student Resource category in the 2023 Educational Australian Publishing Awards

The ancient practices of our First Nations people have powerful applications today in regard to skills and wellbeing. For many students, a connection to nature is an alien concept!

The 'walkabout' can take many forms:

- mental health and wellbeing,
- life skills in an outdoor environment,
- self-esteem improvement by challenges,
- learning about science and Nature.

About the author/illustrator:

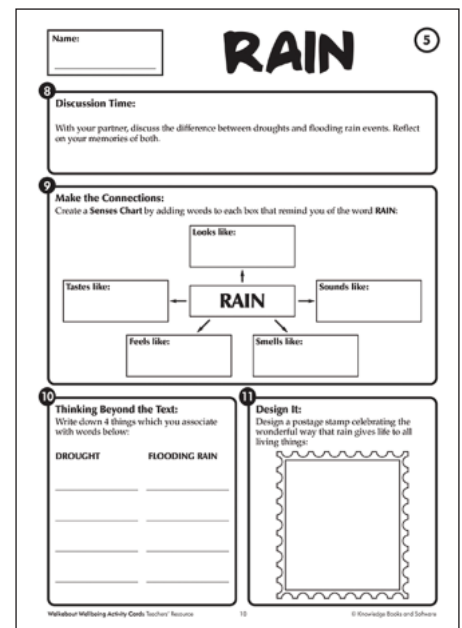

Trevor Fourmile is a Yidinji man from Far North Queensland. Trevor's art and use of traditional Yidinji terms allows for further perspectives around language and culture.

The Teachers' Resource for the Walkabout Wellbeing Activity Cards has been designed to help students engage in deeper learning opportunities that link with each of the cards. Each card is supported by two full pages of activities which include:

- Spelling and vocabulary development/practice
- Grammar and punctuation work
- Word study and dictionary work
- Oral language opportunities
- Handwriting/fine motor skills practice
- Comprehension and reading fluency
- Critical and visual literacy opportunities

Oral language continues to be a focus with this guide with activities that encourage students to express their ideas and thoughts through speaking, writing, and artwork. This fosters deeper learning, increased understanding, and improved self-awareness.

Various ACARA F-10 References are also addressed, however, the primary purpose is to continually develop literacy skills and oral language opportunities within the context of Indigenous Perspectives.

YARN CIRCLES WELLBEING CARDS

Set includes 30 Cards + Teachers' Resource

Yarn Circles Wellbeing Cards have been designed to provide opportunities for students to talk about their feelings, emotions, thoughts and ideas in a safe, positive and collaborative environment. This process reflects the traditional Yarn Circles time that was such an important part of the culture of our First Nations' people. We see it as an extremely important ancient practice that is now fulfilling a very modern need.

"...I just wanted to reach out and say thankyou, they are a great resource that we have been using weekly in our classroom as a wellbeing tool. It has promoted great discussion and has enabled us to dive deeper into the meaning of the words on the cards. The kids thoroughly enjoy sharing their opinions and look forward to our weekly yarn circle."

Curriculum information:

ACARA F-10 General Capabilities supported by these cards: Personal and Social Capability; Literacy (interpret and use language confidently for learning and communicating); Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cross Curriculum Priority (diversity of language, ways of life and experiences).

Yarn Circles Wellbeing Cards will provide opportunities for students to express themselves through oral language and therefore increasing the learning experiences. The activities are designed to help you draw on students' prior knowledge, circumstances, imagination, visual, aural, oral and written capacity to bring about increased understanding, acceptance, empathy, self awareness, self-worth and the opportunity for positive change.

The image displays several components of the Yarn Circles Wellbeing Cards set. On the left, there are three activity cards: 'belong' (with a drawing of a green and black shape), 'belona' (with a drawing of a yellow and black shape), and 'family' (with a drawing of a family). In the center, there are two more activity cards: 'family' (with a drawing of a family) and 'Sharing' (with a drawing of a person). On the right, there is a 'BRAVE' card (with a drawing of a person) and a Teachers' Resource booklet. The Teachers' Resource booklet has a cover that says 'Yarn Circles Wellbeing Cards Teachers' Resource' and 'KNOWLEDGE BOOKS AND SOFTWARE'.

INDIGENOUS ART COLLECTION

Set includes 4 books

A valuable and beautiful collection of Indigenous art inspired by many styles.

This resource was developed for the purpose of students being able to learn more about the First Nations' People by reviewing their art and inclusion in their own art portfolio. The decisions as to colour, form and placement will allow a greater insight in the significance of this art as well as its sheer beauty.

This resource contains an enormous collection of First Nations' inspired and drawn art works for many uses in the classroom.

About the author:

Trevor Fourmile is a Yidinji man from Cairns, Far North Queensland. He is a well-respected artist and author. His stories, designs and art are the Yidinji people's culture. Trevor's art reflects the beautiful coastal rainforests and the breathtaking life of the coral waters. Trevor is passionate about sharing his culture with his people and others to build pride and respect.
