- It is important for you to revisit your budget every once in a while to ensure that you have not overspent. Although getting married is a once-in-a-lifetime experience, you wouldn't want to experience financial struggle at the beginning of your married life.

3 months before

- *Undeniably, the hadang scene is probably the best part of the ceremony but it is advisable to give the groom/groomsmen a heads-up of what to expect during the walk-in, without revealing much. This is to avoid any awkward situation or worst! embarrassing & bad impression of one another on your big day.*

*True love stands by each other's side on
good days, and stands
closer on bad days.*
