Ruffled Apron

Designed by Beckie Hansen

These flouncy aprons are so “girly” and fun...made easily using Clover’s Fuse ‘n Gather. Protecting clothes from drips and splashes has never been so stylish!

Supplies:

Fuse ‘n Gather, Rotary Cutter, Rotary Mat, Pins, and Clover Chaco Liner.

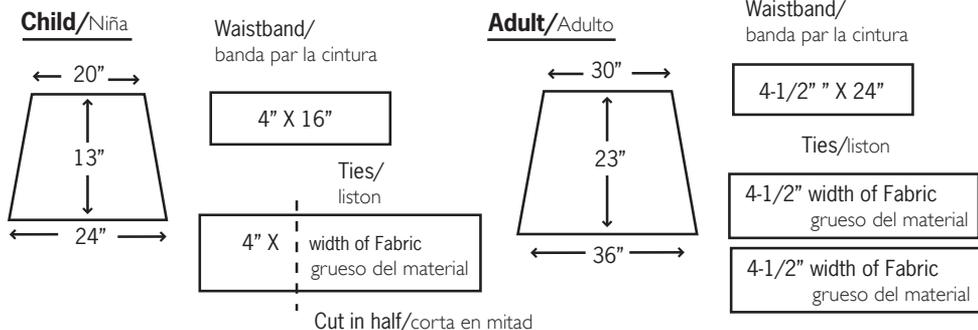

Fabric Requirements:

Basic Apron and Waistband	Child 1/2” yd	Adult 2/3 yd
Ruffles Coordinating Fabrics	5 strips 4” wide	5-6 strips 5” wide
Waistband Interface	2” X 16”	2-1/4” X 24”

Basic Apron:

Note: These measurements can be adjusted for size around and for height.

Ruffles

- Cut strips 4” wide for Child’s apron and 5” wide for the Adult apron.
- Decide on order of ruffle placement on the apron base.
- Hem both long edges for the middle ruffles.
- Hem only the bottom edge for the first and last ruffle.
- Note: The first ruffle top edge finishes into the waistband; the last ruffle is sewn to the bottom of the apron base.
- Mark each ruffle into quarters; press on Fuse ‘n Gather just below the top hem of all ruffles. Ill. #1

Ruffle Placement

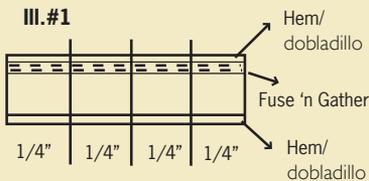

- Use Chaco liner and mark the apron base into quarters.
- Pin bottom ruffle matching the quarter markings; gather, pin and sew to the bottom of the apron base.
- Lay the next ruffle over the previous so that it just covers the top hem and match all quarter markings. Gather, pin, and sew into place.
- Continue until all layers are sewn.

Waistband and Ties

- Add interface to one half of the waistband.
- Sew ties right side together; turn right side out.
- Sew ties to each end of the waistband. Ill. #2
- Slightly gather apron top to fit the waistband size. Pin right side of waistband below ties to wrong side of apron base; sew. Ill. #3
- Press waistband sides and top using a 1/4” seam allowance. Bring waistband over the apron top and topstitch in place. Ill. #4

Interfaz de la cintura	2" x 16"	2 1/4" x 24"

Delantal basico:

Nota: Estas medidas se pueden ajustar para la cintura y la altura

Fruciles

- Corta tiras de 4" de ancho para la delantal de la niña y 5" de ancho para el del adulto
- Decide el orden en que se colocaran los fruciles en la base del delantal
- Hagale bastilla a los dos lados largos de la tira para el volante de en medio
- Hace un dobladillo en el borde inferior del primer y ultimo frucil
- Nota: El borde superior del primer frucil termina en la cintura y el ultimo frucil se cose en la parte interior de la base del delantal
- Marca cada frucil en cuartos, coloca Fuse 'n Gather justo debajo del dobladillo superior de todos los fruciles. Ilustración #1

Colocasion de los fruciles

- Usa Chacoliner para marcar la base del delantar en cuartos.
- Sujeta el frucil interior con alfileres de acuerdo con las marcas de cuartos. Sujeta con alfileres y cose en la parte interior de la base del delantal.
- Coloca el proximo frucil sobre el anterior de modo de que cubra solo la bastilla superior; De acuerdo con las marcas de cuartos. Sujeta con alfileres y cose en su lugar.
- Continúa hasta coser todas las capas.

Banda de la cintura y ties

- Agrega la interfaz a una mitad de la banda de la cintura
- Cose las tiras a la derecha y despues volte a lo derecho
- Cose las tiras a cada extremo de la banda de la cintura. Ilustración #2
- Frunce ligeramente la parte superior del delantal para adaptar al tamaño de la banda de la cintura. Sujeta con alfileres y cose la banda de la cintura al delantal. Ilustración #3
- Plancha la frente y los lados de la banda de la cintura dejando 1/4" de costura. Coloca la banda de la cintura sobre la parte superior del delantal y respuntea en su lugar. Ilustración #4
