

2019 'BEURRÉ BOSCH' PINOT GRIS

WINEMAKER'S NOTE

Taking inspiration from the dry styles of Pinot Gris from Alsace. This vintage was slightly lower in yield for providing good concentration of flavour.

The 'Buerre Bosc' is named after the pear orchard that was 'repurposed' when Pike & Joyce was established. A small amount is fermented in barrel for complexity.

Summary: Our site in the Lenswood subregion of the Adelaide Hills has proven to be very well suited to Pinot Gris, with this release being our 18th consecutive vintage.

This wine is extremely well matched with Pad Thai and is drinking beautifully now.
