The Church Calendar

This Saints Calendar and Daily Planner—2024 includes both the New or Novus Ordo Sundays and feast days, and the Traditional Sundays and feast days (as of 1962). These latter are observed when the Traditional Latin Mass is offered. The Novus Ordo Sundays and feast days, which date from 1970 or later whenever they differ from the Traditional ones, are designated: (New). The Traditional Sundays and feast days, most of which go back centuries, are designated: (Trad.). Also included here are many feast days which no longer appear on either the New or the Traditional calendar (as of 1962)—such as the feasts of St. Philomena, St. Dismas (the Good Thief), St. Tarcisius, St. Gemma Galgani, and St. Dominic Savio; these Historical feasts are designated: (Hist.). It should be noted that there was some moving around of feast days even before the New Calendar was introduced in 1970. For example, St. Catherine of Sweden is shown on March 22 in a 1931 edition of Butler's Lives of the Saints but on March 24 in a 1956 edition of the same work.

In this calendar, the date in parentheses after the name of a saint is the year of the saint's death.

Fast and Abstinence

The Church's current regulations in the U.S. require fasting and abstinence from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday; abstinence from meat on the Fridays of Lent; and abstinence from meat or some other penitential or charitable work on every non-Lenten Friday of the year, unless the Friday falls on a solemnity. "On the Fridays outside of Lent, the U.S. bishops conference obtained the permission of the Holy See for Catholics in the U.S. to substitute a penitential, or even a charitable, practice of their own choosing. They must do some penitential/charitable practice on these Fridays. For most people the easiest practice to consistently fulfill will be the traditional one, to abstain from meat. . . . During Lent, abstinence from meat on Fridays is obligatory in the United States as elsewhere" (www.ewtn.com/faith/lent/fasting.aspx). Abstinence is binding from age 14 (i.e., beginning the day after one's 14th birthday); fasting is binding from age 18 (i.e., beginning the day after one's 18th birthday) until age 59 (i.e., until the end of the day of one's 59th birthday).

According to the Modern Catholic Dictionary, by Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J. (Imprimatur 1979): "The abolition of Friday abstinence is a common misapprehension. Friday abstinence was not abolished; rather, the faithful [in the U.S.A.] now have a choice either to abstain from meat or perform some other kind of penance [or even to perform some charitable work] on Fridays. According to the Church's law, the 'substantial observance' of Fridays as days of penance, whether by abstinence or in other ways, 'is a grave obligation' (Pope Paul VI, Paenitemini, 1966, Norm II, 2)."

What Is Fasting?

Fasting according to the Church's norms means eating only one full meal per day. Two smaller meals or snacks may also be eaten, sufficient to maintain one's strength, but together they should not equal the one full meal. No food may be taken between meals; but liquids, including milk and juice, may be taken between meals. Expectant mothers and the sick are not bound to fast. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In the current regulations, fasting is always accompanied by abstinence from meat. That is, both of the obligatory fasting days (Ash Wednesday and Good Friday) are also days of abstinence from meat. The Bishops of the U.S. have stated that "self-imposed observance of fasting on all weekdays of Lent is strongly recommended" (NCCB statement, November 18, 1966). Fasting on Holy Saturday is specifically recommended by the Church.

What Is Abstinence?

Abstinence from meat means that no meat (the flesh and organs of mammals and fowl), meat gravy, or meat soup may be taken.

Fish Symbols

In this calendar, the dark fish  indicates days of obligatory abstinence from meat; the shaded fish  indicates days of obligatory abstinence from meat or substitution of some other sacrifice (see explanation above); the unshaded fish  indicates days of recommended (formerly obligatory) abstinence from meat.

Former (Traditional) Penitential Observances

This calendar also marks the "Ember Days," that is, the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of four weeks during the year. Ember Fridays were formerly days of fast and abstinence; Ember Wednesdays and Saturdays were formerly days of fast and partial abstinence (meat permitted only at the main meal). Days on which fasting and partial abstinence were formerly required are indicated by an unshaded half-fish . The Ember Days, of ancient origin, were days of fasting for the special sanctification of the four seasons and for obtaining God's blessing on the clergy. They occur during the third week of Advent, the first (full) week of Lent, the week after Pentecost, and the third (full) week in September.

Fasting and partial abstinence were formerly required also on the weekdays of Lent (Monday through Saturday, with full abstinence on Friday) and on the vigil of (day before) Pentecost. Holy Saturday and the vigils of the Immaculate Conception and of Christmas (December 24 or 23; a choice was permitted) were formerly days of fasting and of complete abstinence from meat (unless the vigil fell on a Sunday).

It is praiseworthy to continue the former (traditional) penitential observances, even though they are no longer obligatory. Penance serves to rectify our self-centeredness, to make up for sins (our own and those of others), to strengthen our wills, and to guide us in the footsteps of our Savior. It can be a very pure form of love for God, and can be offered up for the conversion of sinners and the relief of the souls in purgatory.

NOTES

Abstinence from meat was formerly (traditionally) binding from age 7; parents who maintain this discipline in their families are to be highly commended. Moreover, the new Code of Canon Law (1983) states that "pastors and parents are to see to it that minors who are not bound by the law of fast and abstinence are educated in an authentic sense of penance" (Canon 1252).

Fasting was formerly (traditionally) binding from age 21.

SATURDAYS OF OUR LADY

Saturdays are especially dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary in both the New and the Traditional liturgical calendars. This tradition honors Our Lady for her steadfast faith on the first Holy Saturday, when the faith of the Apostles had been shaken by Our Lord's crucifixion.

INCLUSION OF SAINTS

In keeping with its purpose as an aid to devotion rather than an official liturgical Ordo, this daily planner includes even those saints who are not commemorated in the liturgy (whether Novus Ordo or Traditional) in the current year. Such saints are principally those whose days fall in Lent or on Sunday.

St. Augustine (354-430)

August 28 (New, Trad.)

Bishop, Doctor of the Church, Patron of Theologians

Though St. Augustine had been taught to love God by his mother, St. Monica, he fell into a life of habitual sin, which he later chronicled in his Confessions. Born in north Africa, he went to study in Carthage at the age of 17 and began living with a woman with whom he had a son. While teaching rhetoric and grammar at Tagaste and Carthage, he was a member of the heretical Manichean sect, which appealed to his intellectual pride. He began a school of rhetoric in Rome and then taught in Milan, where he was greatly influenced by St. Ambrose. Slowly, St. Augustine underwent a conversion. He sent away his mistress, and two years later he and his son were baptized. Augustine eventually was ordained to the priesthood, consecrated, and became Bishop of Hippo. During his 35-year episcopacy, St. Augustine opposed the Manicheans, the Donatists and the Pelagianists. Due to his great intellect, he made vital contributions to theology and philosophy through his sermons and extensive writings, among which is his City of God. He became ill and died during the Vandals' invasion of Hippo. St. Augustine is called the Doctor of Grace.
