

FEBRUARY CHARITIES 2015

Teatox Australia

The first recipient for the month of February was the Australian Marine Conservation Society. The Australian Marine Conservation Society (AMCS) is the voice for Australia's ocean wildlife. We are an independent charity, staffed by a committed group of professional and passionate scientists, educators and advocates who have defended Australia's oceans for over 45 years. Our paid and volunteer staff work every day on behalf of the community to protect our ocean wildlife.

AMCS works on the big issues concerning the sea. Our key focus is to create large marine national parks (marine sanctuaries), make our fisheries sustainable and protect and recover our threatened ocean wildlife, such as our sharks, seals and whales.

A key component in all of our campaigns is to give our oceans the best chance of resilience against climate change impacts. If we can keep our oceans in the healthiest and most natural state, without pressures from overfishing and pollution, then they will have increased ability to cope with these changes.

With your help, we have been able to donate a large amount to the Australian Marine Conservation Society. We certainly hope it makes you feel as good as it makes us feel helping out the Earth that we all share!

Our second recipient for the month of February is White Ribbon. White Ribbon is Australia's only national, male led Campaign to end men's violence against women.

Vision

All women live in a safety free environment from all forms of men's violence.

Mission

Making women's safety a man's issue too.

The campaign works through primary prevention initiatives involving awareness raising and education, and programs with youth, schools, workplaces and across the broader community. Globally, White Ribbon is the world's largest male-led movement to end men's violence against women. Originating in Canada in 1991, White Ribbon is now active in more than 60 countries. White Ribbon began in Australia in 2003 as part of UNIFEM (now UN Women), formally becoming a Foundation in 2007.

White Ribbon's existence in Australia relies on the support, commitment and generosity of individuals, corporate's, community partners and governments – as well as the community at large. All funds raised supports best practice primary intervention activities and research aimed at changing attitudes and behaviors that result in violence against women.

Thanks to your help, Teatox Australia has made a large donation to White Ribbon in order to support them and the women they support.
