MALDIVES

Nowhere in the world will you find the whiter-than-white, powder-soft sand that you will discover on the coral islands of Maldives. The tile blend of soft whites awakens a sense of spirituality and contemplation.

KAIKOURA

Snow-capped mountains meet the sea in Kaikoura, a dramatic landscape nestled between the Southern Alps in New Zealand and the Pacific Ocean. Known for its abundant wildlife—including whales, fur seals, and albatross – Kaikoura offers wanderers endless winding coastal walks for sea gazing. This mosaic blend magically captures the combination of earth meeting water through hues of deep blue, gray-blue and soft white.

CAPPADOCIA

For more than a thousand years, people have made their home in the soft rock of Cappadocia, Turkey. The natural-hued blend emulates the dry and rocky plateau of this World Heritage site.

CAYO COCO

Don your swimsuit and flip flops for some epic relaxation in Cayo Coco, a luscious tropical island off the coast of Cuba. Famous for its white-sand beaches, coral reefs, and aquamarine waters, this island paradise entices travelers with the promise of endless surf and sea life adventures. The glass blend transports you to this getaway destination through a combination of whisper-soft whites, blues, aquas and greens.

COCOS KEELING

Australia's last untouched paradise lies in the azure waters of the Indian Ocean, kissed by the sun and caressed by fragrant trade winds. Whisper-soft blues and a hint of gray-green make up this lustrous blend.

KANGAROO ISLAND

Welcome to Australia's Kangaroo Island where landscapes invite you to stop and gaze. The soaring cliffs, dense forests, golden sand dunes and lush wetlands of the island are discernible in this tile blend.

SAN BLAS

Experience the feeling of tranquil life on Panama's San Blas Islands. The archipelago comprising 365 islands—many uninhabited—are dotted with coconut palms that grow aside bright turquoise waters. Pristine white beaches and crystal-clear seas offer the ultimate digital detox while you swim among the starfish. Aqua, whites and grays emulate the look of this tropical destination.

SURIN

Rugged and rewarding, Thailand's Surin Islands are an undiscovered, remote escape that draw divers and snorkelers to explore coral reefs and sea creatures. The tile's color palette is reminiscent of Surin's pristine beaches, clear bays and lush jungles.

PAMUKKALE

Located in Turkey, this natural wonder is comprised of terraces and travertine formed by streams and hot springs. The tile blends reflect colors of gray stone and icy blue water.

TWILLINGATE

Breathtaking coastal views are the hallmarks of Twillingate Island off the coast of Newfoundland. The rock-ribbed landscape, dotted with forests and carpeted with soft grasses, overlooks steel-gray ocean waters and drifting icebergs—even in the summer months. The glass mosaic blend echoes the look and feel of this majestic coastline through a combination of oceanic blues, cool grays, and seafoam whites.

SKYROS

If it's holistic healing you're after, look no further than Skyros, the most remote of the Greek Islands in the Aegean sea. An island of dual personalities, the northern half offers a landscape of green and fertile densely wooded forests while the south contrasts with jagged coastlines and barren scenery. The Skyros glass blend amplifies the beauty found in nature through a blend of gray, white, sea and sky blues, and a hint of green.

AOGASHIMA

A remote island in the Philippine Sea, Aogashima is an active volcano island accessible only by boat or helicopter. Home to 200 residents and occasional adventurers, the island is a serene getaway with a sense of danger. The striking glass blend takes inspiration from sea blues, cool winds and dark volcanic rock.

You journey the world to find it; the place where serenity joins exploration. Where the sea meets the sand and the cliffs meet the clouds, you find an untouched path that sparks transformation.
