

I look out the window,
I see the sun shine,
I remember great memories,
Of such special times.
Playing together,
Carefree with bliss,
Living the life,
Those days I so miss.

I look out the window,
I see a passing cloud.
Rain comes then thunder,
Crashes so loud.
I know I'm ok,
I take it in stride,
For I have you dear friend,
I know you won't leave my side.

Whatever the weather it's comforting to know you are here!
