

[54] MULTIPLE SCREEN CONSTRUCTION

[72] Inventor: Howard Alliger, 10 Ponderosa Drive, Melville, N.Y. 11746

[22] Filed: Mar. 30, 1970

[21] Appl. No.: 23,911

[52] U.S. Cl. 55/233, 55/487, 55/524, 44/525, 210/490, 210/499, 261/100

[51] Int. Cl. B01d 47/06

[58] Field of Search.....55/185, 186, 233, 234, 242, 55/259, 97, 486-489, 498, 524, 525, 514, 387; 261/100-107, 98; 210/489, 490, 499

[56] References Cited

UNITED STATES PATENTS

1,479,270 1/1924 Wolcott.....55/233

1,912,235	5/1933	Winslow	55/233
2,008,800	7/1935	Somers	55/491
3,031,827	5/1962	Onstad.....	210/490
3,168,917	2/1965	Bartels.....	55/DIG. 31
3,325,973	6/1967	Illingworth.....	55/90
3,370,401	2/1968	Lucas et al.....	55/90
3,372,530	3/1968	Zimmer	261/116
3,563,828	2/1971	Marshall.....	55/514

Primary Examiner—Bernard Nozick
Attorney—Kenneth S. Goldfarb

[57] ABSTRACT

A screen network construction for air pollution control apparatus comprising a plurality of screens arranged in abutting relationship. The screens are secured tightly together to prevent clogging and to form countless tortuous paths for water and air to mix.

2 Claims, 4 Drawing Figures

