

Beauvignac Old Vine Syrah

Côtes de Thau IGP

Medium-bodied, packed with stewed blackberry, plum, soft white pepper and sweet spice, with a distinctive savoury, leathery note.

Food match: Super-versatile - at best with mildly spicy or peppery dishes, like peppered steak or fajitas.

What's special about this wine? Fantastic value; packed with savoury & fruit flavours.

Like to know more?

- Origin: the area of Thau in the Languedoc, is famous for its oysters.
- Producer: Cave Pomerol, the largest Picpoul de Pinet producer in the area.
- Old vines have deeper roots, and tend to give more character to the wine.