

Ch. Moulin Borie Listrac-Medoc

Exquisite aromas of forest floor, toast and bramble. The palate is velvety, with rich fruit flavours (dark fruit, prunes, blackberry, black plum), lead pencil ,roast coffee bean, cocoa, toast and spices. Drinking well now, or for several years to come - don't miss out!

Food match: Great with red meat, exceptional with prime rib roast!

What's special about this wine?

A superb wine with a fine pedigree, thanks to Bruno Borie.
2015 is a superb vintage.

Like to know more?

- Origin: Listrac-Médoc sits just north of Médoc, before the Haut-Médoc region in Bordeaux's Left Bank. The estate sits on a gravel ridge above clay soil.
- Producer: this property is owned by Bruno Borie, who also manages the renowned Ch. Ducru Beaucaillou.
- Varietals: 50% Merlot (giving softness, and red fruit) ,40% Cabernet Sauvignon (adds tannin and black fruit), 10% Petit Verdot (savoury, tobacco and spice). Named after the windmill which milled grain for the town of Listrac en Medoc.