

Lembranzas Albariño

This Albariño has an exceptionally rich mouthfeel, with a fantail of flavours, starting with pear & citrus, then bursting through to mango, banana, peaches & cream, with a long broad finish. Berliner Gold medal winner.

Food match: Exceptionally good with prawns and shellfish.

What's special about this wine?

- This Albariño is richer and more complex than most, and won Gold in Berlin.
- Fashionable grape variety.

Like to know more?

- Region: Rias Baixas, in Galicia, north-west Spain.
- Albarinho is the native grape variety, used in this area, and is expensive to produce.
- Unoaked.

Awards:

Gold Medal, Berliner Wine Trophy Awards.

Keenly-priced wines, straight from the vineyard