

St. Joseph

Deeply-coloured wine. Powerful concentration - dark fruits (blackberry, plum), with white pepper and savoury, earthy/minerally, leathery flavours on the finish.

Food match: Great with boldly-flavoured spicy dishes like peppered beef.

92 pts Robert Parker
Excellent value for this powerful wine, from one of the Rhône's best appellations.

Like to know more?

- St. Joseph was given its name by Jesuit priests in the 17th century.
- Varietals: 100% Syrah (Shiraz).
- Vines are planted on steep hillsides, mostly granite, which enables ripening and provides important drainage for the roots.
- The grapes are cold-soaked before fermentation. The wine is aged in oak after fermentation.
- This wine drinks well now, and will continue to improve for 5-8 years from vintage.
