

Western Maple - Plank

Last Revised 2/12/2019 - A&D

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Western maple plank or face grain style wood tables and countertops are built with parallel strips of wood typically 4" to 6" wide, but vary in width depending on availability. Western Maple is a Pacific Northwest native species which varies in color from reddish white with a grayish cast to a light pinkish-brown. The grain is most often straight with occasional wavy, quilted, fiddleback, or birds-eye patterns. Staggered butt joints may be included on tops longer than 8'.
