VAULT CITY
MODERN SOUR BEER

We're an independent craft brewery and Scotland's largest sour beer producer making heavily fruited, modern sour beer in Edinburgh, Scotland

We set out to modernise a traditional style of brewing with our take on fruited sours. Our modern sour beers have converted even the most stubborn non-beer and traditional beer drinkers, with a mix of accessible and adventurous flavours.

Our house culture and mixed fermentation base beer pairs perfectly with real fruit ingredients, and we use literally tonnes of the stuff in our recipes to help push the boundaries of what people would typically expect from a beer. For us, that means bright colours and bold new flavours.

That's what we're all about at Vault City.
