stationery & printed goods*

welcome to the whimsical world of Eat the Moon

Eat the Moon is an illustration-led stationery and printed goods brand founded on the belief that there are still dreams to be dreamed if we use our imagination. We act as a reminder to stop and see the world a little differently, to stay curious, and reclaim a little of that child-like wonder by illustrating everyday moments into surreal scenes full of parties, oddities and charming characters.

We invite you to embrace your imaginative side, liberate your daydreams and find humour in life's folly.
