

Terms and Conditions

Purpose

Zurvita, Inc. (hereafter Zurvita) sells over its website www.zurvita.com various products to its customers. These General Terms and Conditions (T&C) regulate the relationship between Zurvita and the customer regarding all goods ordered on these websites or in direct sales.

Contract

- All offers from Zurvita on this website are without obligation and none are binding. Contracts are concluded by customers placing an order online or by email, getting a confirmation email, and Zurvita delivering the goods, or in direct sales only by delivery of the goods, into existence.
- Conflicting T&C of the purchaser are not acknowledged and are not part of the contract.

Prices

Pricing is determined by the company and may be subject to change at any time. Applicable taxes will be applied during the time of checkout based on location and product selection. The shipping and handling charges are also applied if applicable at checkout.

Delivery

- The dates and deadlines desired by the purchaser are unbinding as far as they are not explicitly confirmed by Zurvita in writing. Only dates stated by Zurvita are valid and those dates are subject to change as set forth in Zurvita's shipping policies. Zurvita is free to choose the type of shipment in the event the preferred method is unavailable.
- Zurvita is not responsible for delivery delays due to circumstances beyond its control and this does not release the purchaser of his or her contractual duty to pay for goods.
- The goods are delivered by Zurvita and delivery results in full discharge of Zurvita's liabilities when the products ordered are delivered to the address of the customer as set forth in the order.

Warranty/Refunds

Zurvita's product warranties and refund policies are available on its website.

Data protection

See Zurvita's Privacy Policy.

Severability clause

If individual regulations of these T&C are void or ineffective in whole or in part, this shall not influence the effectiveness of the remaining regulations. These T&C may be modified by Zurvita at any time in its sole discretion. The purchaser should regularly visit this page for updates.

Additional Terms and Conditions

- Customer using the website who is a minor/under the age of 18 shall not register as a user of the website and shall not transact on or use the website.
- Cardholder must retain a copy of transaction records and merchant policies and rules. Descriptor may include one of the following: "ZURVITA," "Zurvita.com (844)987-8482," "ZURVITA INC." or "Zurvita Holdings INC 844-987-8482" for all processed payments.
- User is responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of his account.
