

UNISYNC SELECTED AS UNIFORM PROVIDER TO SOCIETE DE TRANSPORT DE MONTREAL

Toronto, ON. November 15, 2021: Unisync Corp. ("Unisync") (TSX:"UNI") (OTCQX:"USYNF") is pleased to announce that it has been selected by Societe de Transport de Montreal ("STM") to manage the uniform program for 8,708 uniformed transit employees of the City of Montreal. This multi-year agreement is for an initial term of five years plus two two-year extension options, with a combined estimated value approaching $30 million over the full term of the contract. The award is the culmination of an extensive review of Unisync's award-winning product quality and customer-focused suite of Managed Fulfillment Services. The new agreement provides uniforms and other items to the various sections of STM, grouped into two blocks. Block I represents operational staff including drivers, operations managers and employees, security control managers, and fire prevention employees and managers. Block II represents maintenance staff including maintenance managers, administrative and technical employees, and operational support staff.

"Winning the STM contract is a great achievement for Unisync, and reflects the significant effort we have placed on building our capabilities and base in Quebec in recent years" commented CEO, Matthew Graham. "STM is the iconic transit provider in the City of Montreal and our focus will be to provide uniforms that enable these transit operators to perform to the best of their ability every day, moving the people of Montreal to and from their daily destinations. Our state-of-the-art Managed Fulfillment Services solution will ensure that the various collective agreements applicable to each group of employees will be adhered to and the end-to-end supply chain will ensure that every employee will have the correct uniform to wear every day."
