LAS VEGAS–The North American Association of Uniform Manufacturers and Distributors (NAUMD) announced the winners of the Image of the Year Awards during the 2010 NAUMD Convention & Expo in Las Vegas.

These award programs recognize high achievement in the design, creation and manufacture of imagewear apparel. This year, a first time nominee that has been doing incredible things, demonstrated strength in design to win the Best Uniform of the Year in the highly competitive CASINO RESORT category. Unisync Group was a clear winner, having developed a dynamic, functional, and fashion forward dress worn by the R5 Lounge staff at the Niagara Fallsview Casino Resort located in Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada. The award was accepted on behalf of the Unisync employees by John Millman, Vice President in Las Vegas.
