

TORONTO, ON-(Marketwired – February 15, 2017) – Unisync Corp. (TSX VENTURE: UNI) (“Unisync”) is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary Unisync Group Limited (“UGL”) has been selected by G4S Canada to design, manufacture and distribute G4S uniforms to their 8,000 employees across Canada. This multi-year agreement represents a culmination of two years of testing both Unisync’s award-winning product quality and customer focused suite of fulfillment services.

“We are very excited at the feedback we have received from G4S on the new jacket design we rolled out in Fall 2016.” Commented UGL Account Executive, Naomi Meghory. “We strive to always surpass the expectations of a uniform from a required garment to a desired garment. We knew we hit the mark with the new jacket design when G4S non-uniformed corporate employees began asking to purchase the jacket.”

Positioned in 100 countries, G4S is the leading global integrated security solutions company employing 600,000 professionals worldwide. Unisync is pleased to welcome this globally recognized brand to our portfolio of distinguished clients which includes major corporations such as Air Canada, TELUS, Loblaws and Purolator.

Peter Panaritis, CEO, G4S Canada said, “It is essential that our uniforms carry clear, quality markings that express G4S’ vision and values as well as meeting our customer’s requirements. A quality uniform helps instil a sense of pride and responsibility in our employees. And our uniforms must deliver functional benefits, like wearer safety.”

Unisync operates through two business segments: UGL of Mississauga, Ontario and Peerless Garments LP (“Peerless”) of Winnipeg, Manitoba. UGL is a leading customer-focused provider of corporate apparel, serving a list of Canadian iconic brands. Peerless specializes in the production and distribution of highly technical protective garments, military operational clothing and accessories for a broad spectrum of Federal, Provincial and Municipal government departments and agencies.

Canadian enterprise with exceptional capabilities in garment design, domestic manufacturing and offshore outsourcing, including state-of-the-art web-based B2B ordering, distribution and program management systems.
